

On April 10, 2018: the “Teens Using Drugs: What To Know and What To Do” Series will be relocated to the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, 5325 Elliott Drive. This is ONLY for April 10, 2018.

To find the Michigan Heart and Vascular Center building located at 5325 Elliott Drive: The hospital campus is circled by Elliott Drive (south and west side) and McCauley Drive (north and east side.) All streets leading to the hospital campus connect with either Elliott Drive or McCauley Drive. If you enter the campus on McCauley Drive, follow McCauley Drive to Elliott Drive. If you enter the campus on Elliott Drive: proceed towards the “specialty centers” area. The “specialty centers” area is about 0.3 miles south/east of the Emergency Drive and 0.1 miles west of McCauley Drive. Enter public parking area M. Park in lot M and enter the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, located on the east side of this parking area. We’ll have signs in the building directing you to the auditorium location.

On April 10, 2018: the “Teens Using Drugs: What To Know and What To Do” Series will be relocated to the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, 5325 Elliott Drive. This is ONLY for April 10, 2018.

To find the Michigan Heart and Vascular Center building located at 5325 Elliott Drive: The hospital campus is circled by Elliott Drive (south and west side) and McCauley Drive (north and east side.) All streets leading to the hospital campus connect with either Elliott Drive or McCauley Drive. If you enter the campus on McCauley Drive, follow McCauley Drive to Elliott Drive. If you enter the campus on Elliott Drive: proceed towards the “specialty centers” area. The “specialty centers” area is about 0.3 miles south/east of the Emergency Drive and 0.1 miles west of McCauley Drive. Enter public parking area M. Park in lot M and enter the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, located on the east side of this parking area. We’ll have signs in the building directing you to the auditorium location.

On April 10, 2018: the “Teens Using Drugs: What To Know and What To Do” Series will be relocated to the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, 5325 Elliott Drive. This is ONLY for April 10, 2018.

To find the Michigan Heart and Vascular Center building located at 5325 Elliott Drive: The hospital campus is circled by Elliott Drive (south and west side) and McCauley Drive (north and east side.) All streets leading to the hospital campus connect with either Elliott Drive or McCauley Drive. If you enter the campus on McCauley Drive, follow McCauley Drive to Elliott Drive. If you enter the campus on Elliott Drive: proceed towards the “specialty centers” area. The “specialty centers” area is about 0.3 miles south/east of the Emergency Drive and 0.1 miles west of McCauley Drive. Enter public parking area M. Park in lot M and enter the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, located on the east side of this parking area. We’ll have signs in the building directing you to the auditorium location.

On April 10, 2018: the “Teens Using Drugs: What To Know and What To Do” Series will be relocated to the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, 5325 Elliott Drive. This is ONLY for April 10, 2018.

To find the Michigan Heart and Vascular Center building located at 5325 Elliott Drive: The hospital campus is circled by Elliott Drive (south and west side) and McCauley Drive (north and east side.) All streets leading to the hospital campus connect with either Elliott Drive or McCauley Drive. If you enter the campus on McCauley Drive, follow McCauley Drive to Elliott Drive. If you enter the campus on Elliott Drive: proceed towards the “specialty centers” area. The “specialty centers” area is about 0.3 miles south/east of the Emergency Drive and 0.1 miles west of McCauley Drive. Enter public parking area M. Park in lot M and enter the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, located on the east side of this parking area. We’ll have signs in the building directing you to the auditorium location.

On April 10, 2018: the “Teens Using Drugs: What To Know and What To Do” Series will be relocated to the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, 5325 Elliott Drive. This is ONLY for April 10, 2018.

To find the Michigan Heart and Vascular Center building located at 5325 Elliott Drive: The hospital campus is circled by Elliott Drive (south and west side) and McCauley Drive (north and east side.) All streets leading to the hospital campus connect with either Elliott Drive or McCauley Drive. If you enter the campus on McCauley Drive, follow McCauley Drive to Elliott Drive. If you enter the campus on Elliott Drive: proceed towards the “specialty centers” area. The “specialty centers” area is about 0.3 miles south/east of the Emergency Drive and 0.1 miles west of McCauley Drive. Enter public parking area M. Park in lot M and enter the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, located on the east side of this parking area. We’ll have signs in the building directing you to the auditorium location.

On April 10, 2018: the “Teens Using Drugs: What To Know and What To Do” Series will be relocated to the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, 5325 Elliott Drive. This is ONLY for April 10, 2018.

To find the Michigan Heart and Vascular Center building located at 5325 Elliott Drive: The hospital campus is circled by Elliott Drive (south and west side) and McCauley Drive (north and east side.) All streets leading to the hospital campus connect with either Elliott Drive or McCauley Drive. If you enter the campus on McCauley Drive, follow McCauley Drive to Elliott Drive. If you enter the campus on Elliott Drive: proceed towards the “specialty centers” area. The “specialty centers” area is about 0.3 miles south/east of the Emergency Drive and 0.1 miles west of McCauley Drive. Enter public parking area M. Park in lot M and enter the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, located on the east side of this parking area. We’ll have signs in the building directing you to the auditorium location.

On April 10, 2018: the “Teens Using Drugs: What To Know and What To Do” Series will be relocated to the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, 5325 Elliott Drive. This is ONLY for April 10, 2018.

To find the Michigan Heart and Vascular Center building located at 5325 Elliott Drive: The hospital campus is circled by Elliott Drive (south and west side) and McCauley Drive (north and east side.) All streets leading to the hospital campus connect with either Elliott Drive or McCauley Drive. If you enter the campus on McCauley Drive, follow McCauley Drive to Elliott Drive. If you enter the campus on Elliott Drive: proceed towards the “specialty centers” area. The “specialty centers” area is about 0.3 miles south/east of the Emergency Drive and 0.1 miles west of McCauley Drive. Enter public parking area M. Park in lot M and enter the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, located on the east side of this parking area. We’ll have signs in the building directing you to the auditorium location.

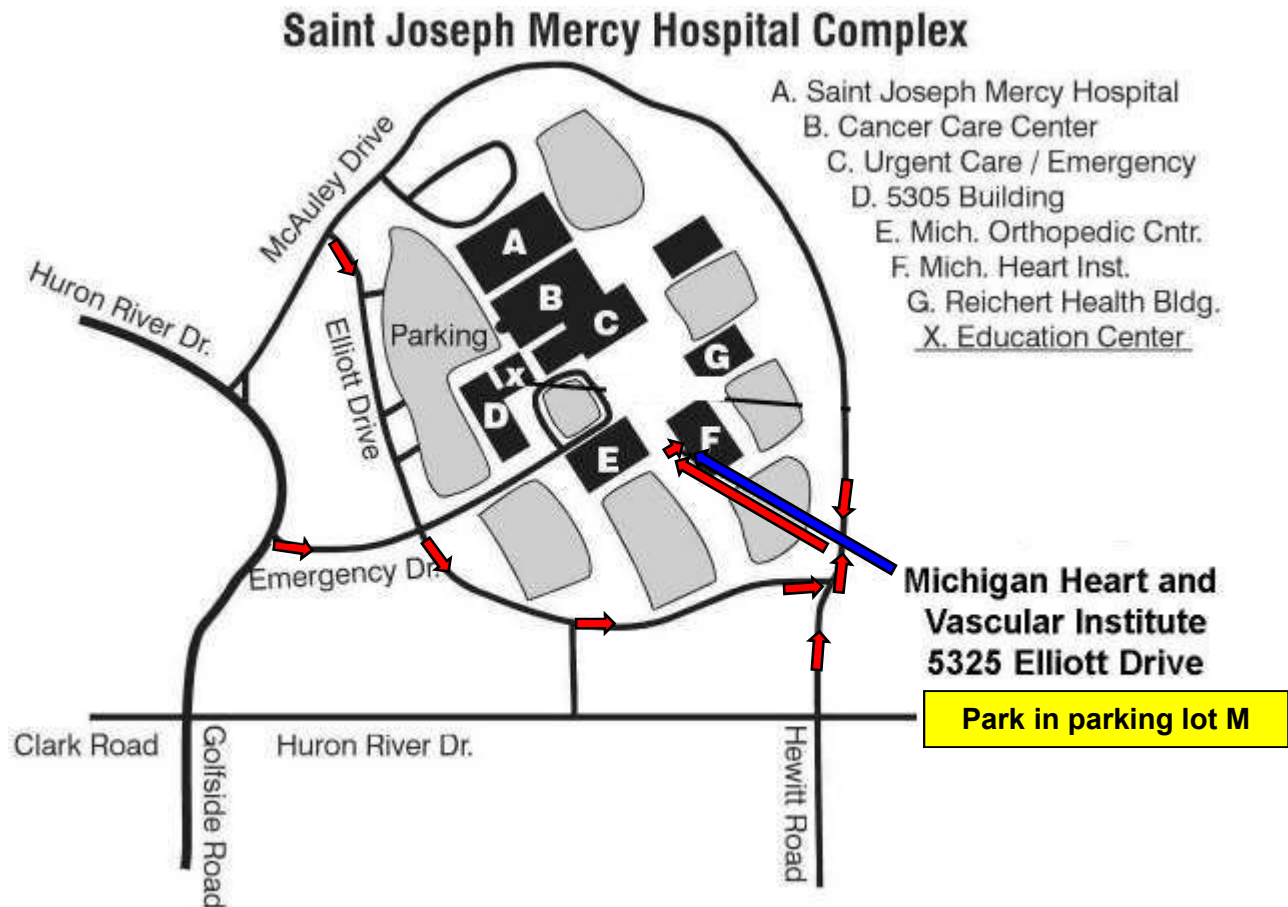

On April 10, 2018: the “Teens Using Drugs: What To Know and What To Do” Series will be relocated to the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, 5325 Elliott Drive. This is ONLY for April 10, 2018.

To find the Michigan Heart and Vascular Center building located at 5325 Elliott Drive: The hospital campus is circled by Elliott Drive (south and west side) and McCauley Drive (north and east side.) All streets leading to the hospital campus connect with either Elliott Drive or McCauley Drive. If you enter the campus on McCauley Drive, follow McCauley Drive to Elliott Drive. If you enter the campus on Elliott Drive: proceed towards the “specialty centers” area. The “specialty centers” area is about 0.3 miles south/east of the Emergency Drive and 0.1 miles west of McCauley Drive. Enter public parking area M. Park in lot M and enter the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, located on the east side of this parking area. We’ll have signs in the building directing you to the auditorium location.

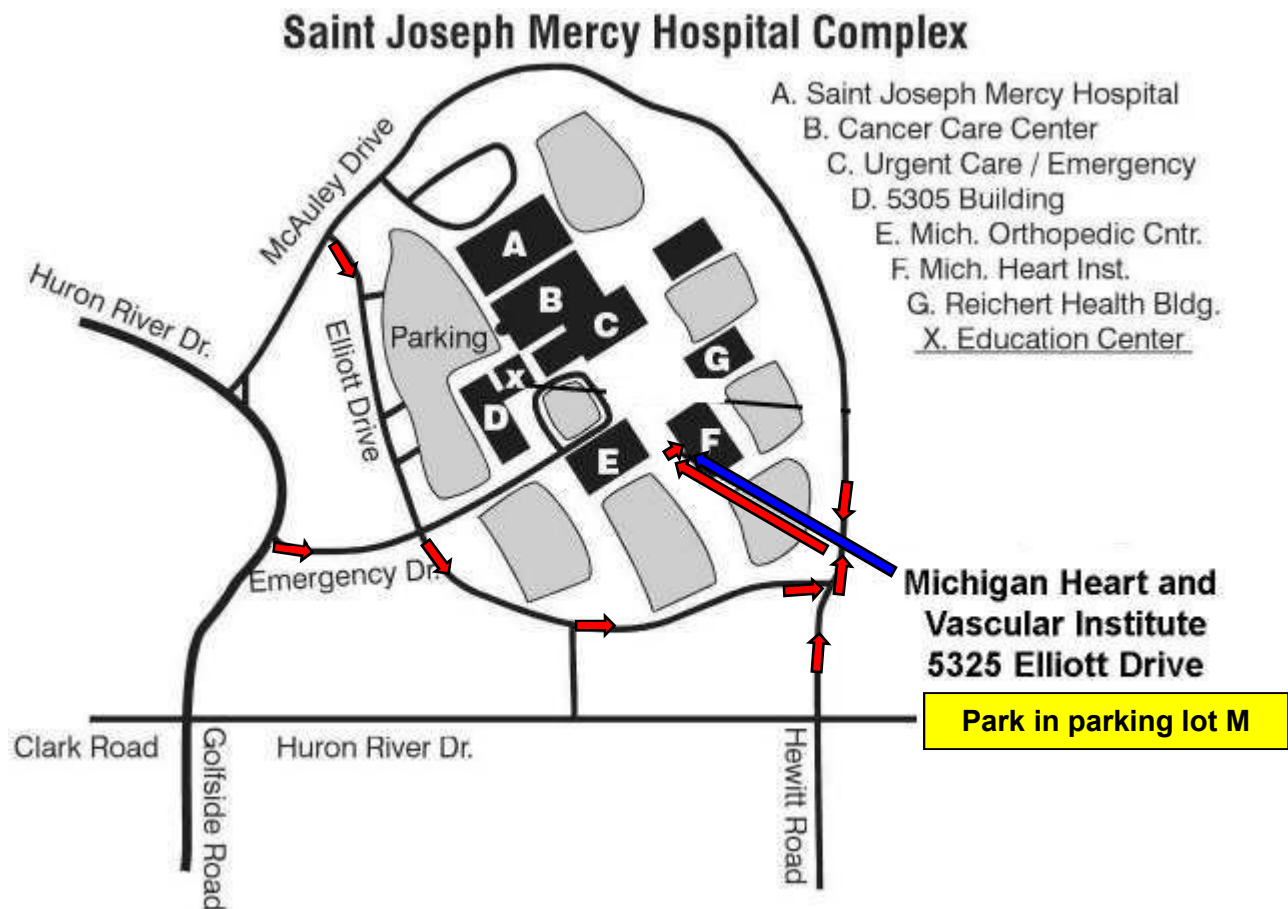

On April 10, 2018: the “Teens Using Drugs: What To Know and What To Do” Series will be relocated to the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, 5325 Elliott Drive. This is ONLY for April 10, 2018.

To find the Michigan Heart and Vascular Center building located at 5325 Elliott Drive: The hospital campus is circled by Elliott Drive (south and west side) and McCauley Drive (north and east side.) All streets leading to the hospital campus connect with either Elliott Drive or McCauley Drive. If you enter the campus on McCauley Drive, follow McCauley Drive to Elliott Drive. If you enter the campus on Elliott Drive: proceed towards the “specialty centers” area. The “specialty centers” area is about 0.3 miles south/east of the Emergency Drive and 0.1 miles west of McCauley Drive. Enter public parking area M. Park in lot M and enter the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, located on the east side of this parking area. We’ll have signs in the building directing you to the auditorium location.

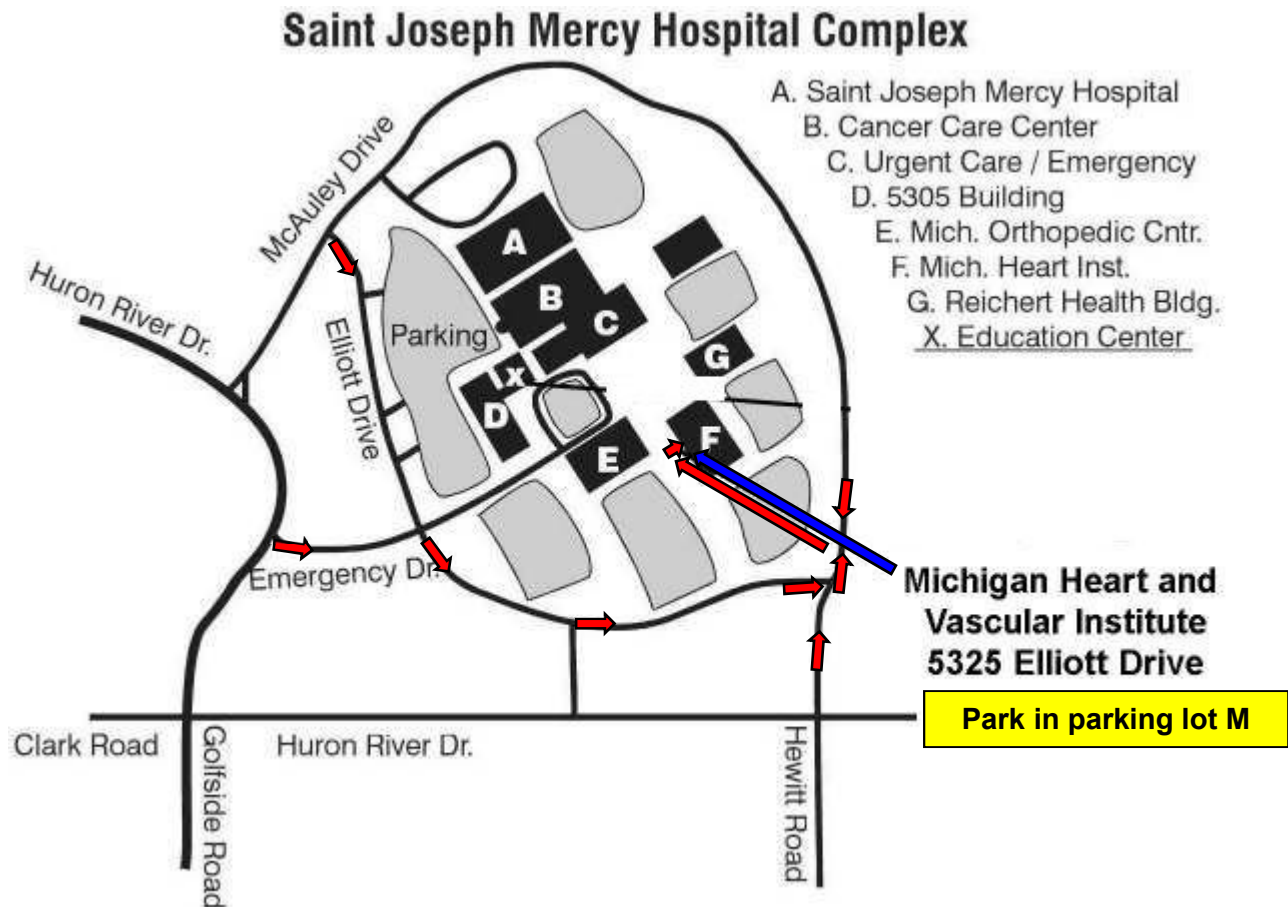

On April 10, 2018: the “Teens Using Drugs: What To Know and What To Do” Series will be relocated to the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, 5325 Elliott Drive. This is ONLY for April 10, 2018.

To find the Michigan Heart and Vascular Center building located at 5325 Elliott Drive: The hospital campus is circled by Elliott Drive (south and west side) and McCauley Drive (north and east side.) All streets leading to the hospital campus connect with either Elliott Drive or McCauley Drive. If you enter the campus on McCauley Drive, follow McCauley Drive to Elliott Drive. If you enter the campus on Elliott Drive: proceed towards the “specialty centers” area. The “specialty centers” area is about 0.3 miles south/east of the Emergency Drive and 0.1 miles west of McCauley Drive. Enter public parking area M. Park in lot M and enter the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, located on the east side of this parking area. We’ll have signs in the building directing you to the auditorium location.

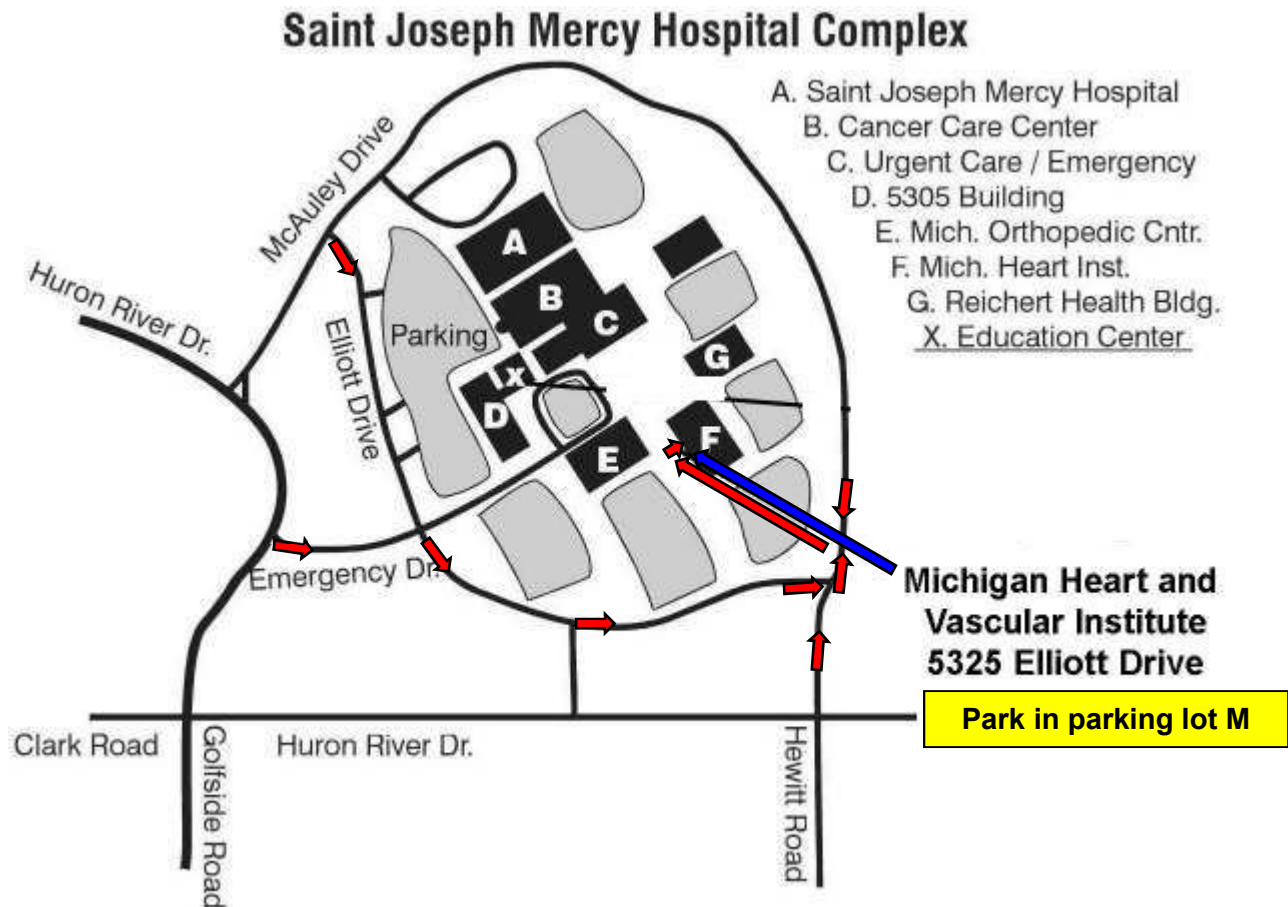

On April 10, 2018: the “Teens Using Drugs: What To Know and What To Do” Series will be relocated to the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, 5325 Elliott Drive. This is ONLY for April 10, 2018.

To find the Michigan Heart and Vascular Center building located at 5325 Elliott Drive: The hospital campus is circled by Elliott Drive (south and west side) and McCauley Drive (north and east side.) All streets leading to the hospital campus connect with either Elliott Drive or McCauley Drive. If you enter the campus on McCauley Drive, follow McCauley Drive to Elliott Drive. If you enter the campus on Elliott Drive: proceed towards the “specialty centers” area. The “specialty centers” area is about 0.3 miles south/east of the Emergency Drive and 0.1 miles west of McCauley Drive. Enter public parking area M. Park in lot M and enter the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, located on the east side of this parking area. We’ll have signs in the building directing you to the auditorium location.

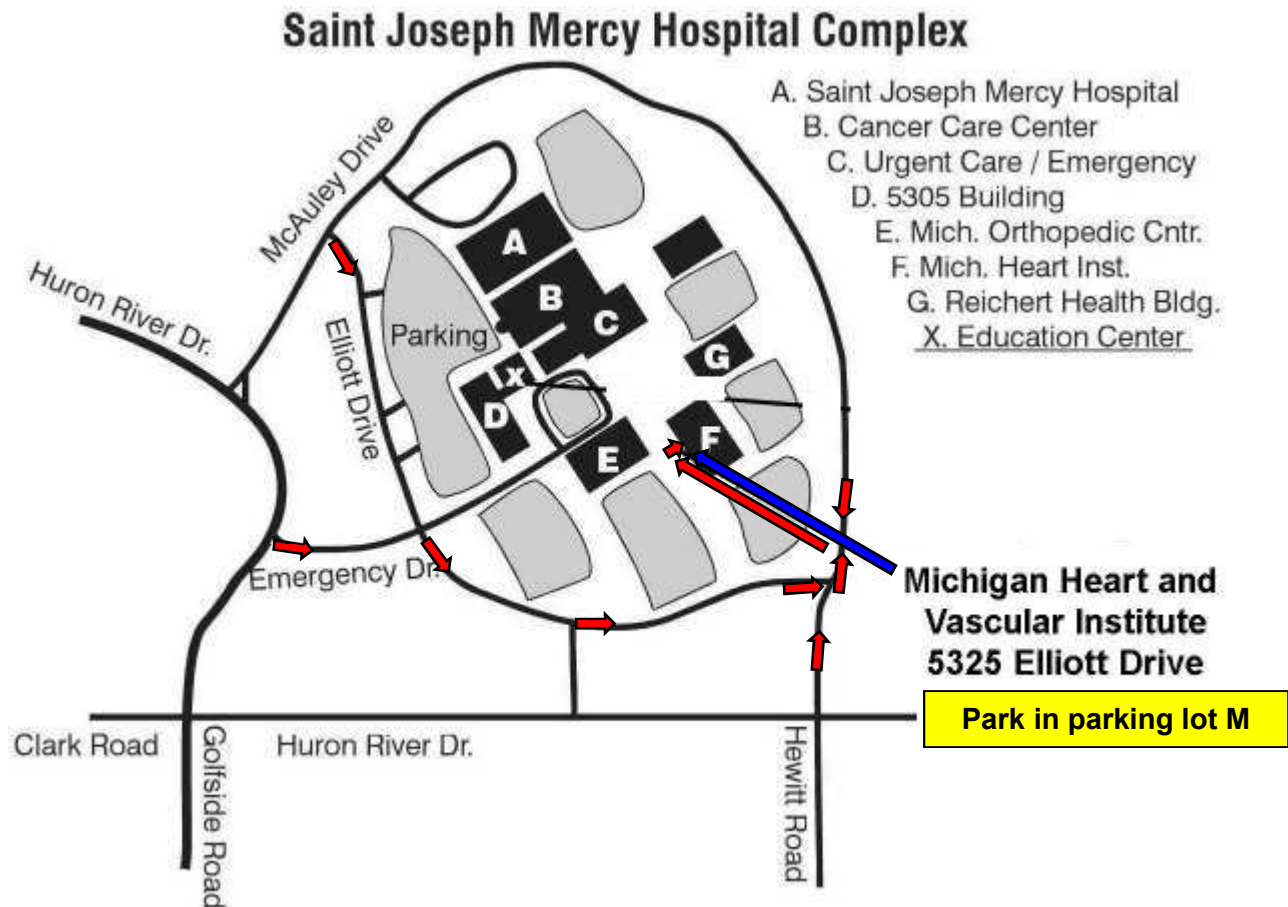

On April 10, 2018: the “Teens Using Drugs: What To Know and What To Do” Series will be relocated to the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, 5325 Elliott Drive. This is ONLY for April 10, 2018.

To find the Michigan Heart and Vascular Center building located at 5325 Elliott Drive: The hospital campus is circled by Elliott Drive (south and west side) and McCauley Drive (north and east side.) All streets leading to the hospital campus connect with either Elliott Drive or McCauley Drive. If you enter the campus on McCauley Drive, follow McCauley Drive to Elliott Drive. If you enter the campus on Elliott Drive: proceed towards the “specialty centers” area. The “specialty centers” area is about 0.3 miles south/east of the Emergency Drive and 0.1 miles west of McCauley Drive. Enter public parking area M. Park in lot M and enter the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, located on the east side of this parking area. We’ll have signs in the building directing you to the auditorium location.

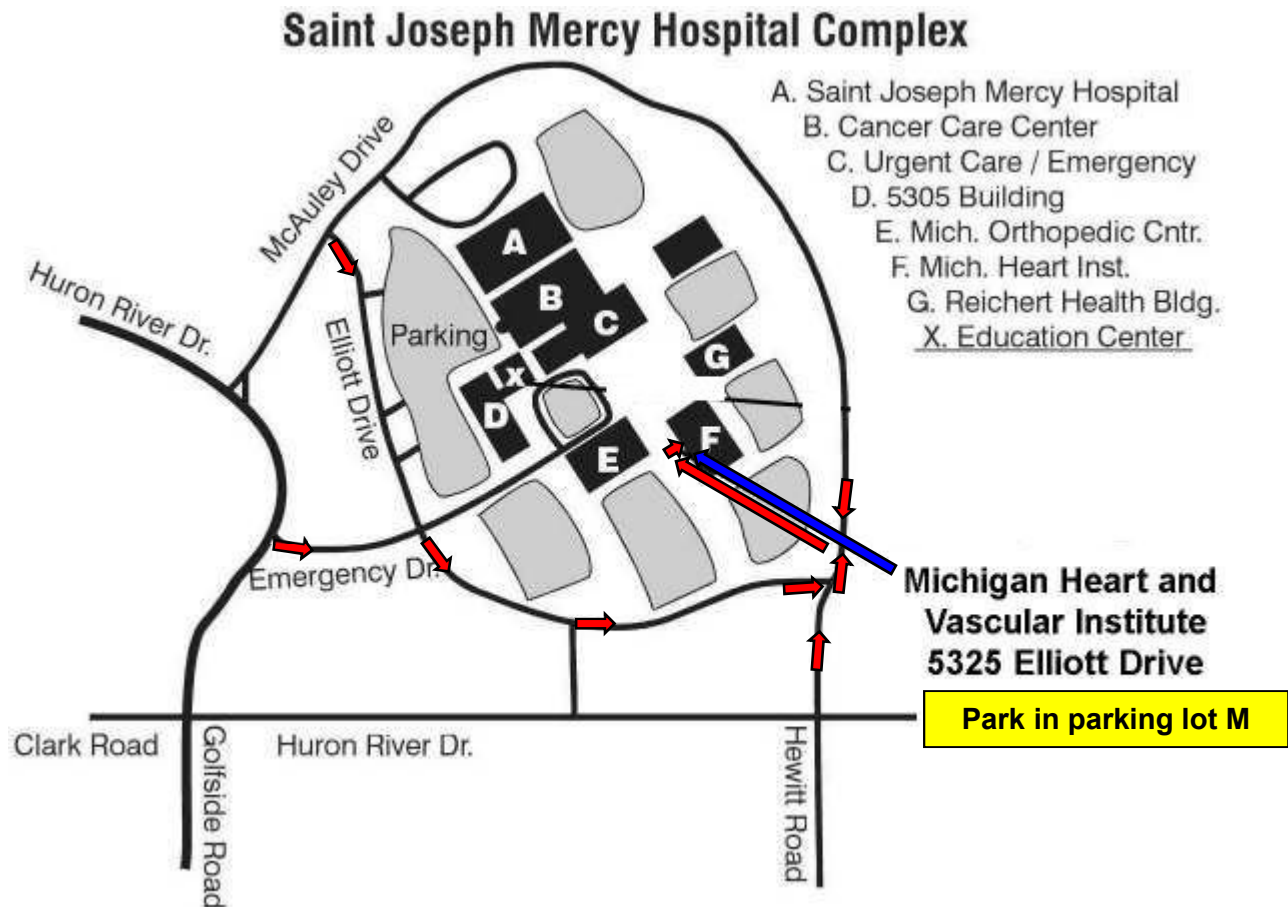

On April 10, 2018: the “Teens Using Drugs: What To Know and What To Do” Series will be relocated to the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, 5325 Elliott Drive. This is ONLY for April 10, 2018.

To find the Michigan Heart and Vascular Center building located at 5325 Elliott Drive: The hospital campus is circled by Elliott Drive (south and west side) and McCauley Drive (north and east side.) All streets leading to the hospital campus connect with either Elliott Drive or McCauley Drive. If you enter the campus on McCauley Drive, follow McCauley Drive to Elliott Drive. If you enter the campus on Elliott Drive: proceed towards the “specialty centers” area. The “specialty centers” area is about 0.3 miles south/east of the Emergency Drive and 0.1 miles west of McCauley Drive. Enter public parking area M. Park in lot M and enter the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, located on the east side of this parking area. We’ll have signs in the building directing you to the auditorium location.

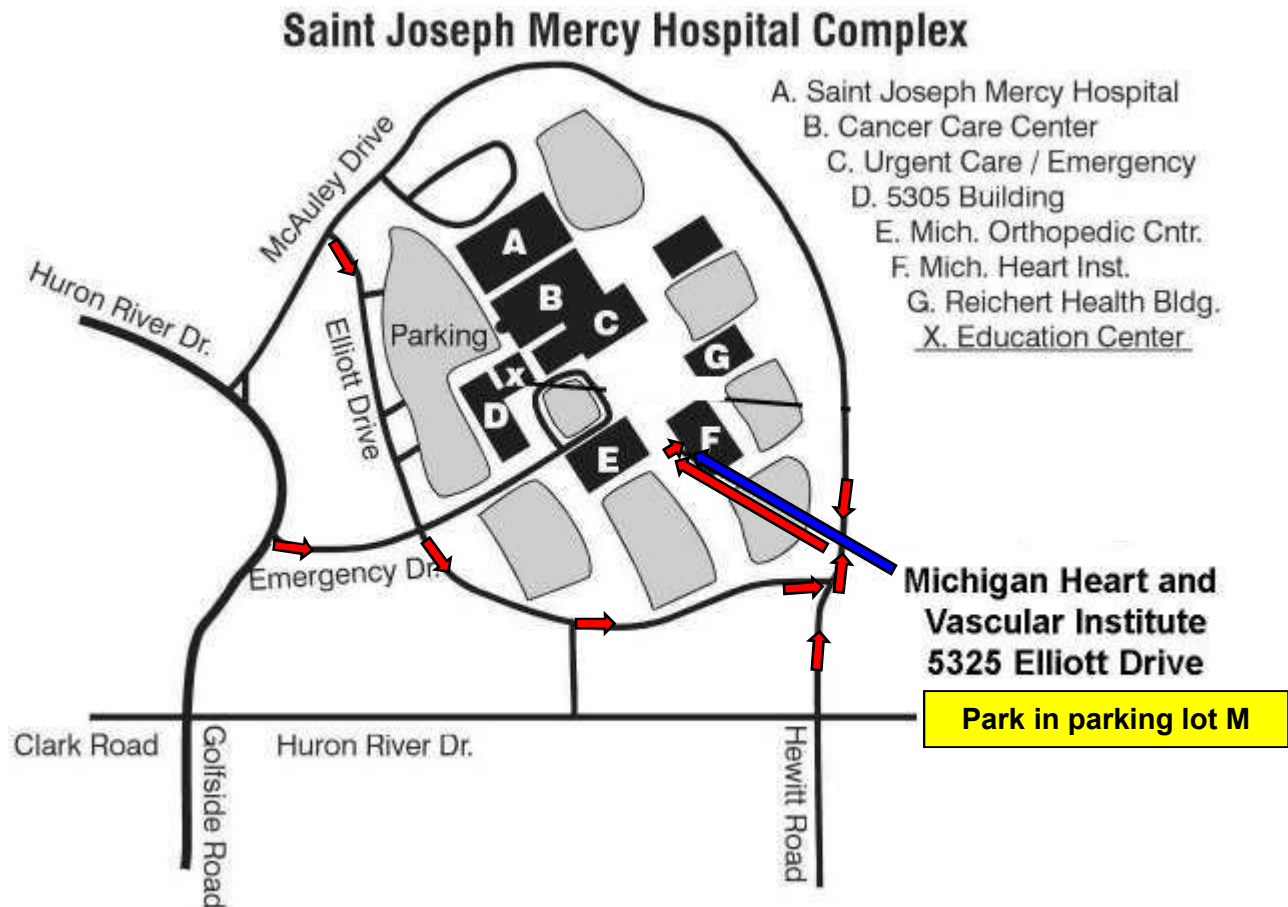

On April 10, 2018: the “Teens Using Drugs: What To Know and What To Do” Series will be relocated to the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, 5325 Elliott Drive. This is ONLY for April 10, 2018.

To find the Michigan Heart and Vascular Center building located at 5325 Elliott Drive: The hospital campus is circled by Elliott Drive (south and west side) and McCauley Drive (north and east side.) All streets leading to the hospital campus connect with either Elliott Drive or McCauley Drive. If you enter the campus on McCauley Drive, follow McCauley Drive to Elliott Drive. If you enter the campus on Elliott Drive: proceed towards the “specialty centers” area. The “specialty centers” area is about 0.3 miles south/east of the Emergency Drive and 0.1 miles west of McCauley Drive. Enter public parking area M. Park in lot M and enter the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, located on the east side of this parking area. We’ll have signs in the building directing you to the auditorium location.

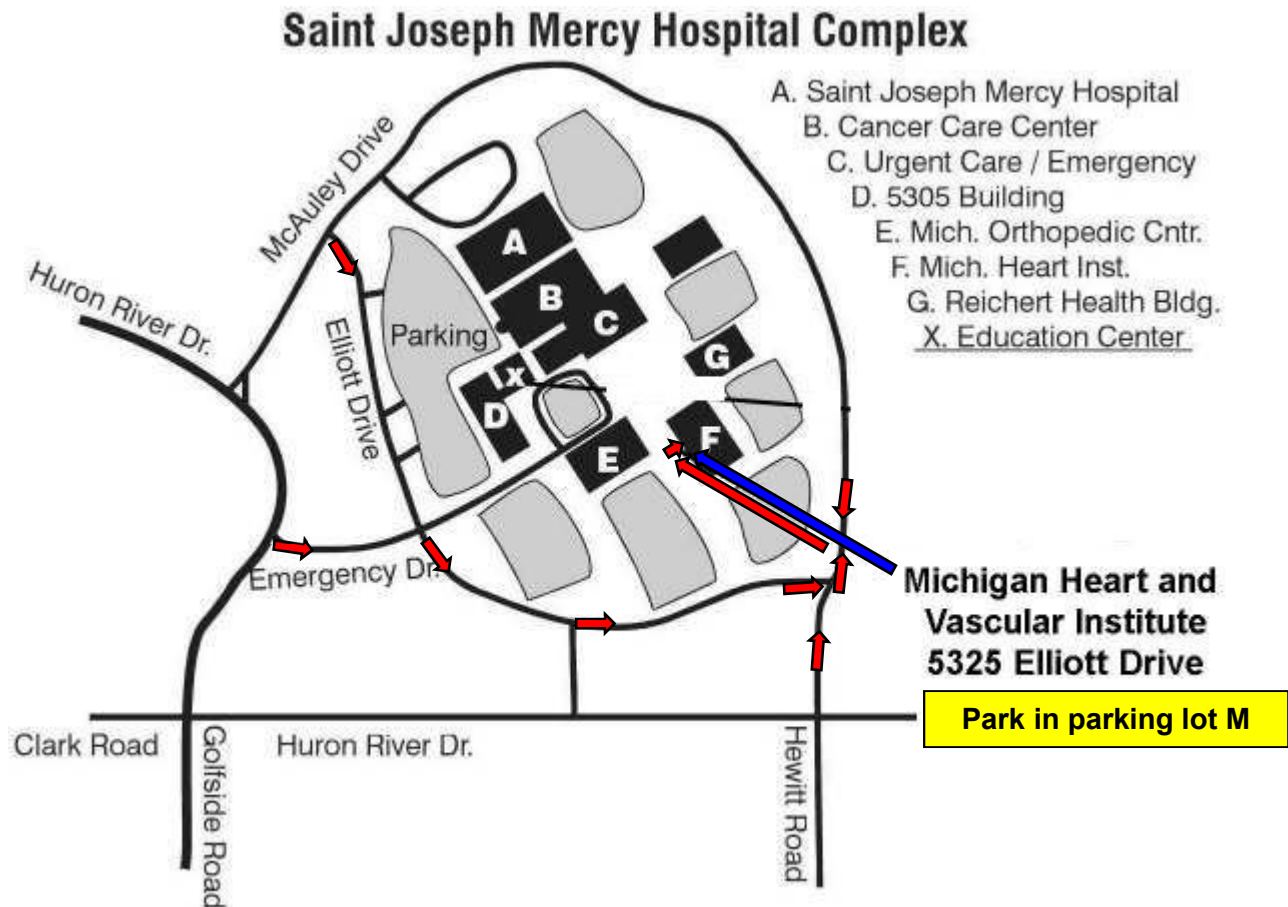

On April 10, 2018: the “Teens Using Drugs: What To Know and What To Do” Series will be relocated to the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, 5325 Elliott Drive. This is ONLY for April 10, 2018.

To find the Michigan Heart and Vascular Center building located at 5325 Elliott Drive: The hospital campus is circled by Elliott Drive (south and west side) and McCauley Drive (north and east side.) All streets leading to the hospital campus connect with either Elliott Drive or McCauley Drive. If you enter the campus on McCauley Drive, follow McCauley Drive to Elliott Drive. If you enter the campus on Elliott Drive: proceed towards the “specialty centers” area. The “specialty centers” area is about 0.3 miles south/east of the Emergency Drive and 0.1 miles west of McCauley Drive. Enter public parking area M. Park in lot M and enter the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, located on the east side of this parking area. We’ll have signs in the building directing you to the auditorium location.

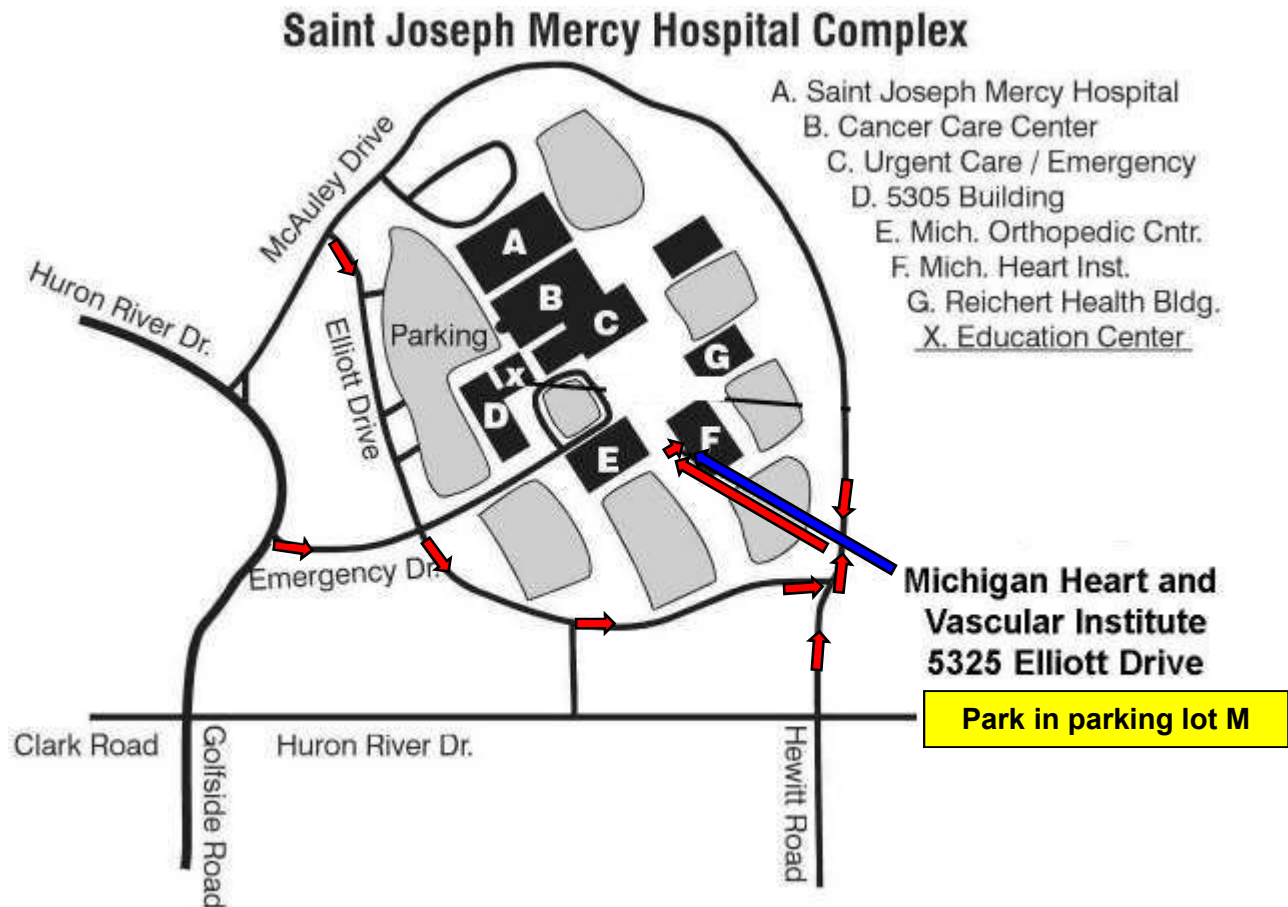

On April 10, 2018: the “Teens Using Drugs: What To Know and What To Do” Series will be relocated to the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, 5325 Elliott Drive. This is ONLY for April 10, 2018.

To find the Michigan Heart and Vascular Center building located at 5325 Elliott Drive: The hospital campus is circled by Elliott Drive (south and west side) and McCauley Drive (north and east side.) All streets leading to the hospital campus connect with either Elliott Drive or McCauley Drive. If you enter the campus on McCauley Drive, follow McCauley Drive to Elliott Drive. If you enter the campus on Elliott Drive: proceed towards the “specialty centers” area. The “specialty centers” area is about 0.3 miles south/east of the Emergency Drive and 0.1 miles west of McCauley Drive. Enter public parking area M. Park in lot M and enter the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, located on the east side of this parking area. We’ll have signs in the building directing you to the auditorium location.

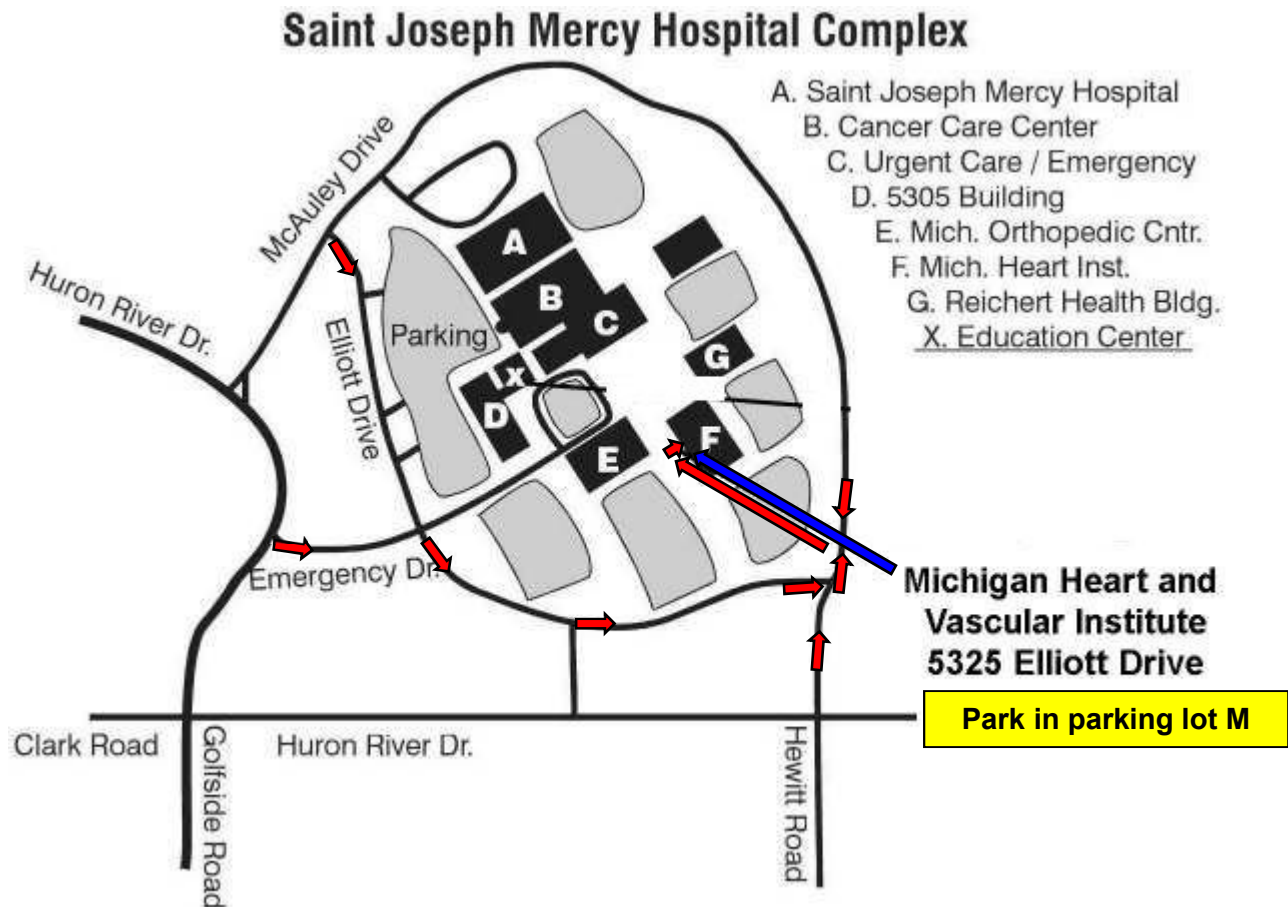

On April 10, 2018: the “Teens Using Drugs: What To Know and What To Do” Series will be relocated to the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, 5325 Elliott Drive. This is ONLY for April 10, 2018.

To find the Michigan Heart and Vascular Center building located at 5325 Elliott Drive: The hospital campus is circled by Elliott Drive (south and west side) and McCauley Drive (north and east side.) All streets leading to the hospital campus connect with either Elliott Drive or McCauley Drive. If you enter the campus on McCauley Drive, follow McCauley Drive to Elliott Drive. If you enter the campus on Elliott Drive: proceed towards the “specialty centers” area. The “specialty centers” area is about 0.3 miles south/east of the Emergency Drive and 0.1 miles west of McCauley Drive. Enter public parking area M. Park in lot M and enter the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, located on the east side of this parking area. We’ll have signs in the building directing you to the auditorium location.

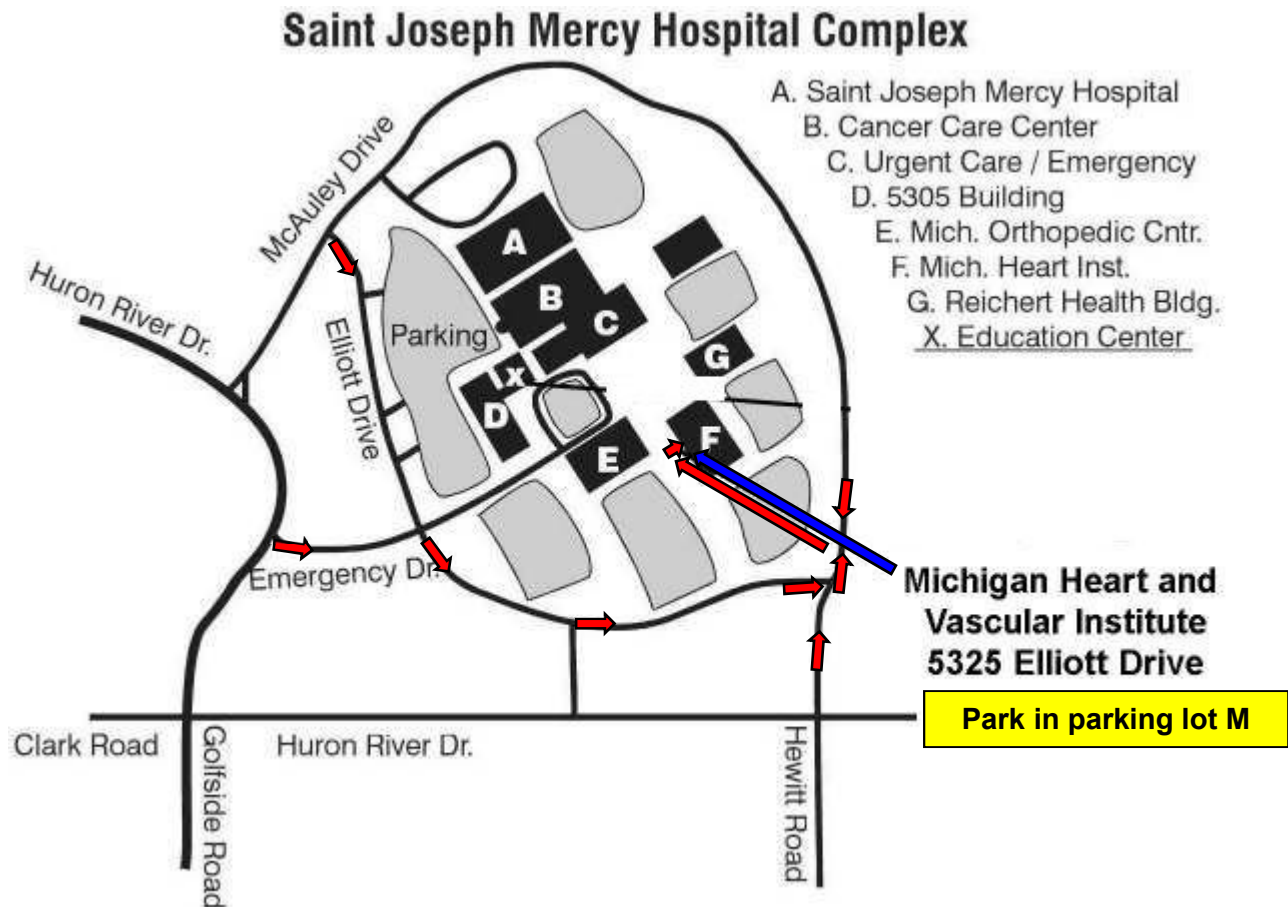

On April 10, 2018: the “Teens Using Drugs: What To Know and What To Do” Series will be relocated to the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, 5325 Elliott Drive. This is ONLY for April 10, 2018.

To find the Michigan Heart and Vascular Center building located at 5325 Elliott Drive: The hospital campus is circled by Elliott Drive (south and west side) and McCauley Drive (north and east side.) All streets leading to the hospital campus connect with either Elliott Drive or McCauley Drive. If you enter the campus on McCauley Drive, follow McCauley Drive to Elliott Drive. If you enter the campus on Elliott Drive: proceed towards the “specialty centers” area. The “specialty centers” area is about 0.3 miles south/east of the Emergency Drive and 0.1 miles west of McCauley Drive. Enter public parking area M. Park in lot M and enter the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, located on the east side of this parking area. We’ll have signs in the building directing you to the auditorium location.

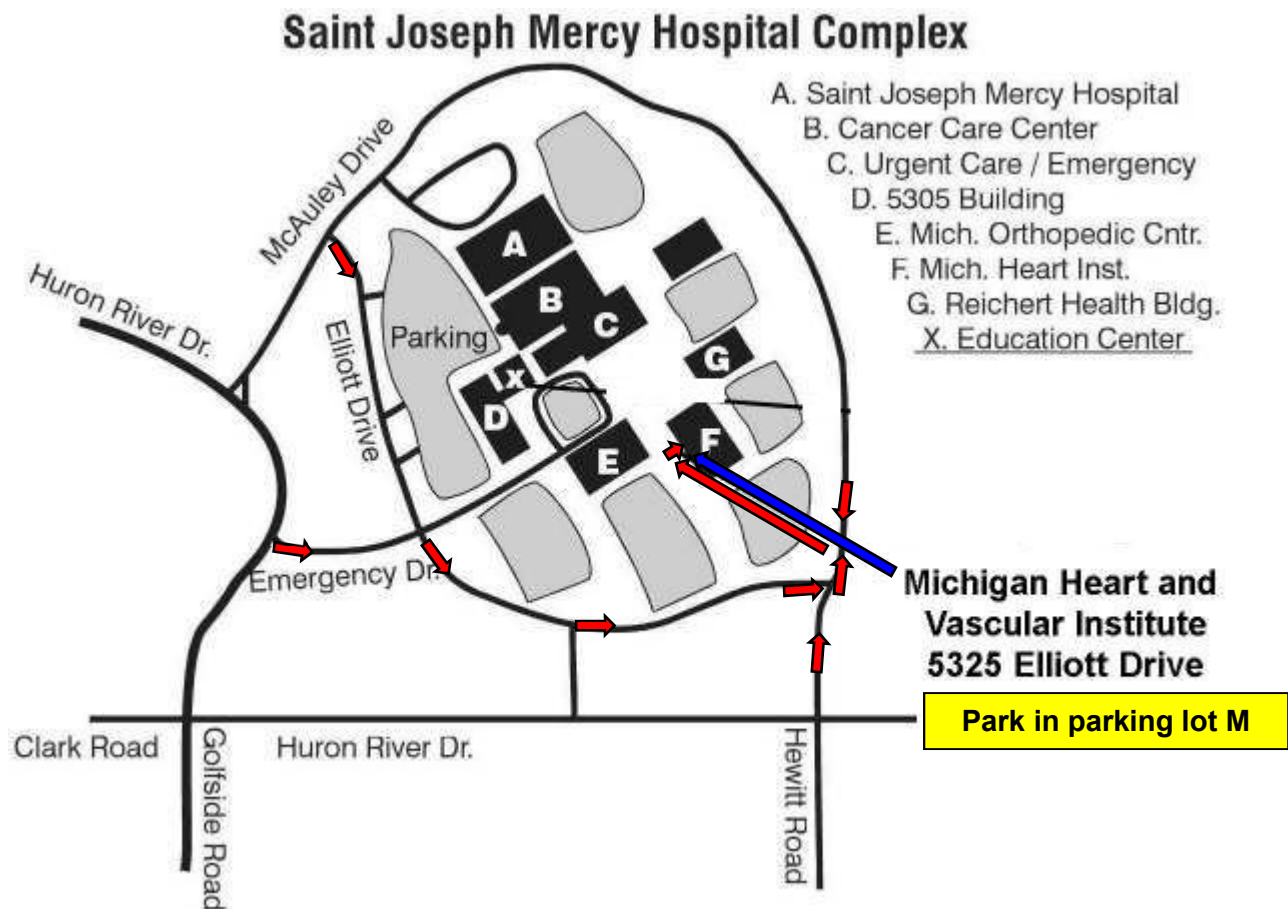

On April 10, 2018: the “Teens Using Drugs: What To Know and What To Do” Series will be relocated to the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, 5325 Elliott Drive. This is ONLY for April 10, 2018.

To find the Michigan Heart and Vascular Center building located at 5325 Elliott Drive: The hospital campus is circled by Elliott Drive (south and west side) and McCauley Drive (north and east side.) All streets leading to the hospital campus connect with either Elliott Drive or McCauley Drive. If you enter the campus on McCauley Drive, follow McCauley Drive to Elliott Drive. If you enter the campus on Elliott Drive: proceed towards the “specialty centers” area. The “specialty centers” area is about 0.3 miles south/east of the Emergency Drive and 0.1 miles west of McCauley Drive. Enter public parking area M. Park in lot M and enter the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, located on the east side of this parking area. We’ll have signs in the building directing you to the auditorium location.

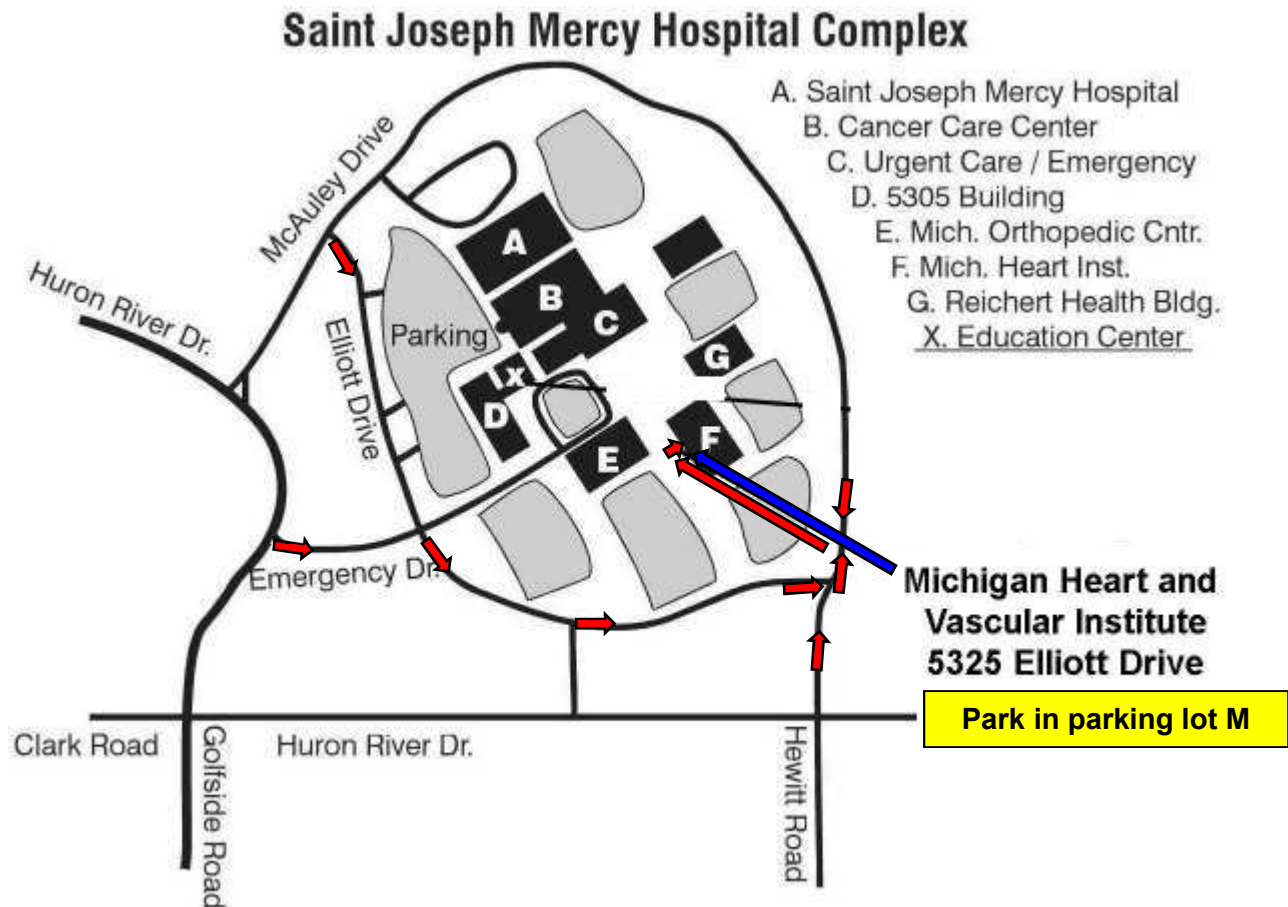

On April 10, 2018: the “Teens Using Drugs: What To Know and What To Do” Series will be relocated to the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, 5325 Elliott Drive. This is ONLY for April 10, 2018.

To find the Michigan Heart and Vascular Center building located at 5325 Elliott Drive: The hospital campus is circled by Elliott Drive (south and west side) and McCauley Drive (north and east side.) All streets leading to the hospital campus connect with either Elliott Drive or McCauley Drive. If you enter the campus on McCauley Drive, follow McCauley Drive to Elliott Drive. If you enter the campus on Elliott Drive: proceed towards the “specialty centers” area. The “specialty centers” area is about 0.3 miles south/east of the Emergency Drive and 0.1 miles west of McCauley Drive. Enter public parking area M. Park in lot M and enter the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, located on the east side of this parking area. We’ll have signs in the building directing you to the auditorium location.

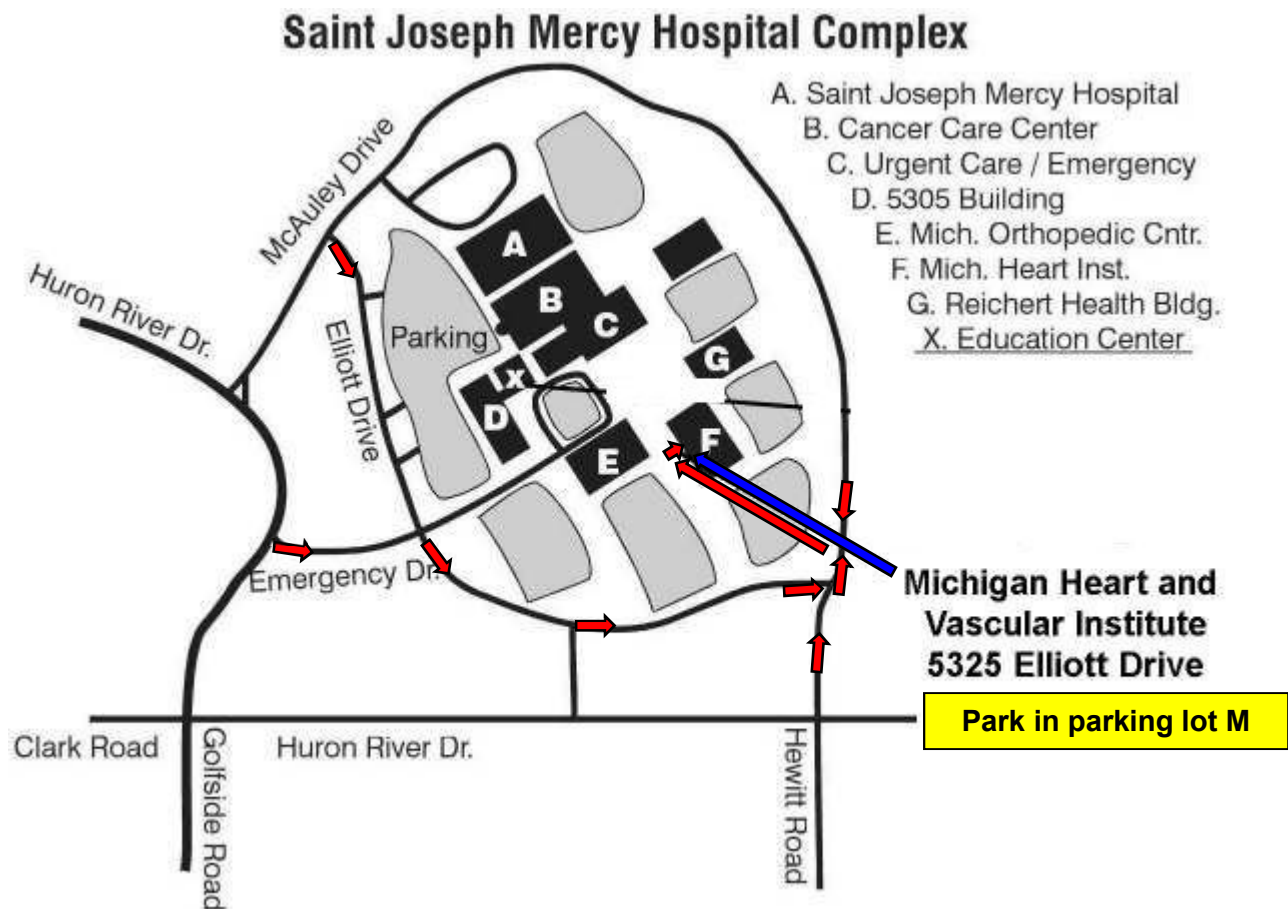

On April 10, 2018: the “Teens Using Drugs: What To Know and What To Do” Series will be relocated to the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, 5325 Elliott Drive. This is ONLY for April 10, 2018.

To find the Michigan Heart and Vascular Center building located at 5325 Elliott Drive: The hospital campus is circled by Elliott Drive (south and west side) and McCauley Drive (north and east side.) All streets leading to the hospital campus connect with either Elliott Drive or McCauley Drive. If you enter the campus on McCauley Drive, follow McCauley Drive to Elliott Drive. If you enter the campus on Elliott Drive: proceed towards the “specialty centers” area. The “specialty centers” area is about 0.3 miles south/east of the Emergency Drive and 0.1 miles west of McCauley Drive. Enter public parking area M. Park in lot M and enter the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, located on the east side of this parking area. We’ll have signs in the building directing you to the auditorium location.

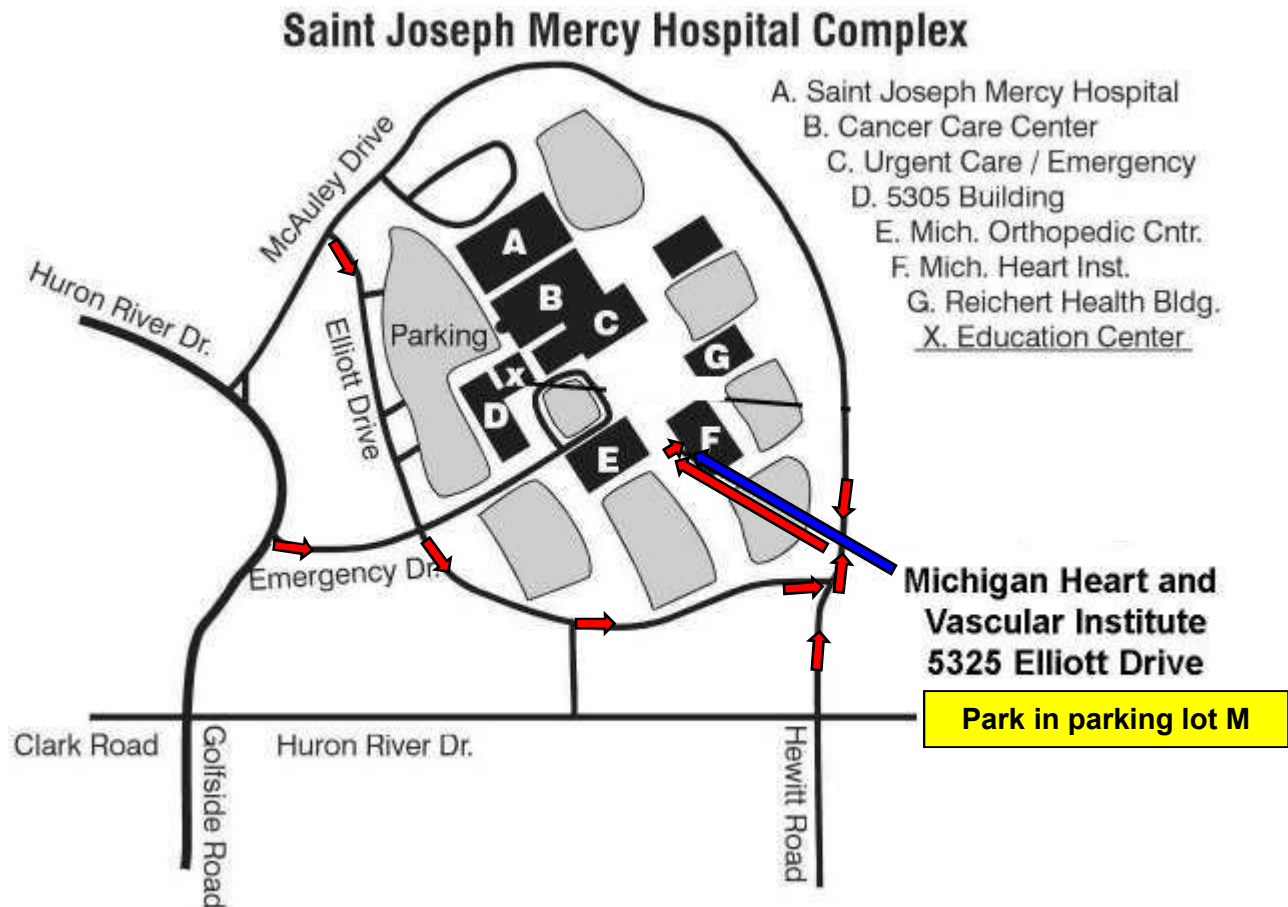

On April 10, 2018: the “Teens Using Drugs: What To Know and What To Do” Series will be relocated to the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, 5325 Elliott Drive. This is ONLY for April 10, 2018.

To find the Michigan Heart and Vascular Center building located at 5325 Elliott Drive: The hospital campus is circled by Elliott Drive (south and west side) and McCauley Drive (north and east side.) All streets leading to the hospital campus connect with either Elliott Drive or McCauley Drive. If you enter the campus on McCauley Drive, follow McCauley Drive to Elliott Drive. If you enter the campus on Elliott Drive: proceed towards the “specialty centers” area. The “specialty centers” area is about 0.3 miles south/east of the Emergency Drive and 0.1 miles west of McCauley Drive. Enter public parking area M. Park in lot M and enter the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, located on the east side of this parking area. We’ll have signs in the building directing you to the auditorium location.

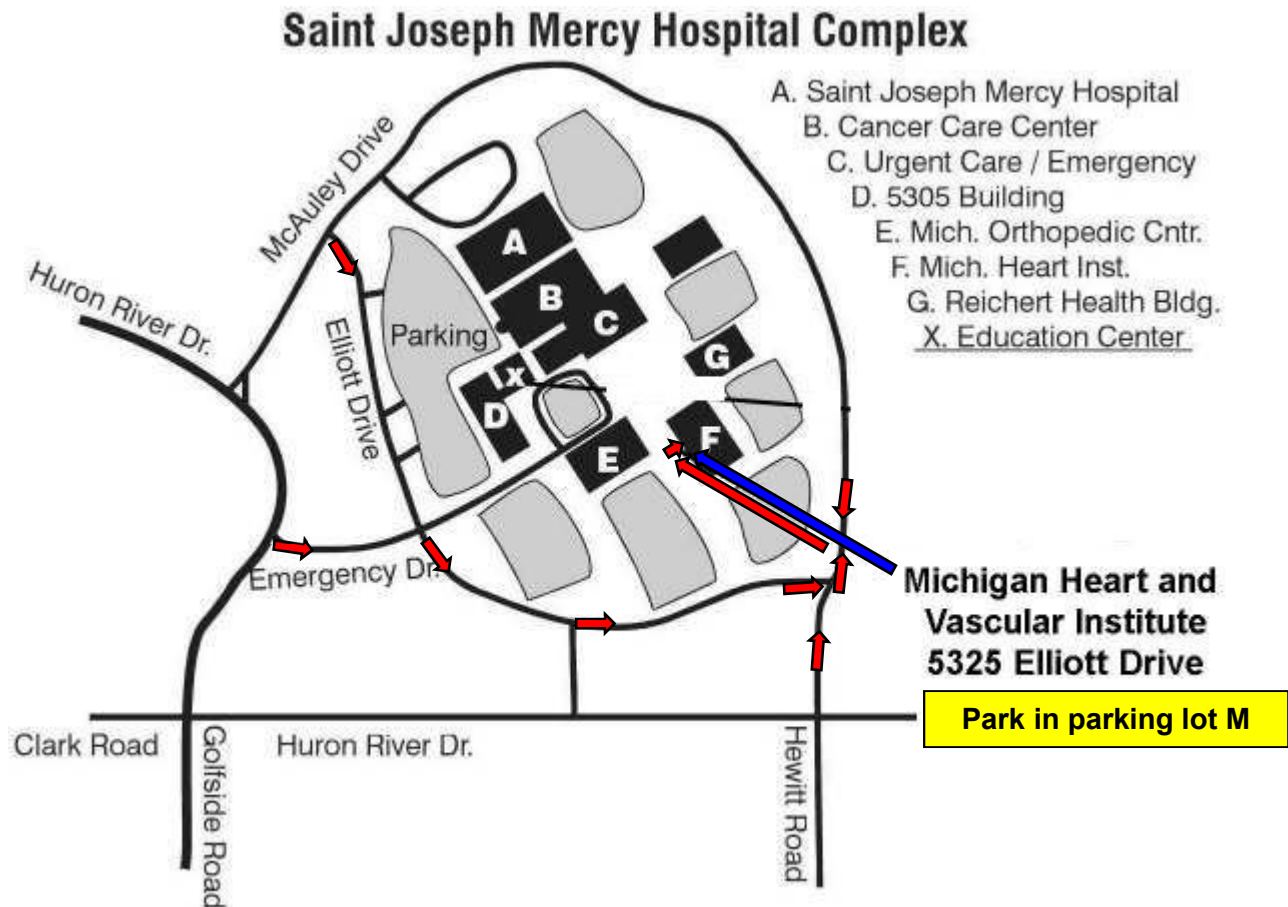

On April 10, 2018: the “Teens Using Drugs: What To Know and What To Do” Series will be relocated to the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, 5325 Elliott Drive. This is ONLY for April 10, 2018.

To find the Michigan Heart and Vascular Center building located at 5325 Elliott Drive: The hospital campus is circled by Elliott Drive (south and west side) and McCauley Drive (north and east side.) All streets leading to the hospital campus connect with either Elliott Drive or McCauley Drive. If you enter the campus on McCauley Drive, follow McCauley Drive to Elliott Drive. If you enter the campus on Elliott Drive: proceed towards the “specialty centers” area. The “specialty centers” area is about 0.3 miles south/east of the Emergency Drive and 0.1 miles west of McCauley Drive. Enter public parking area M. Park in lot M and enter the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, located on the east side of this parking area. We’ll have signs in the building directing you to the auditorium location.

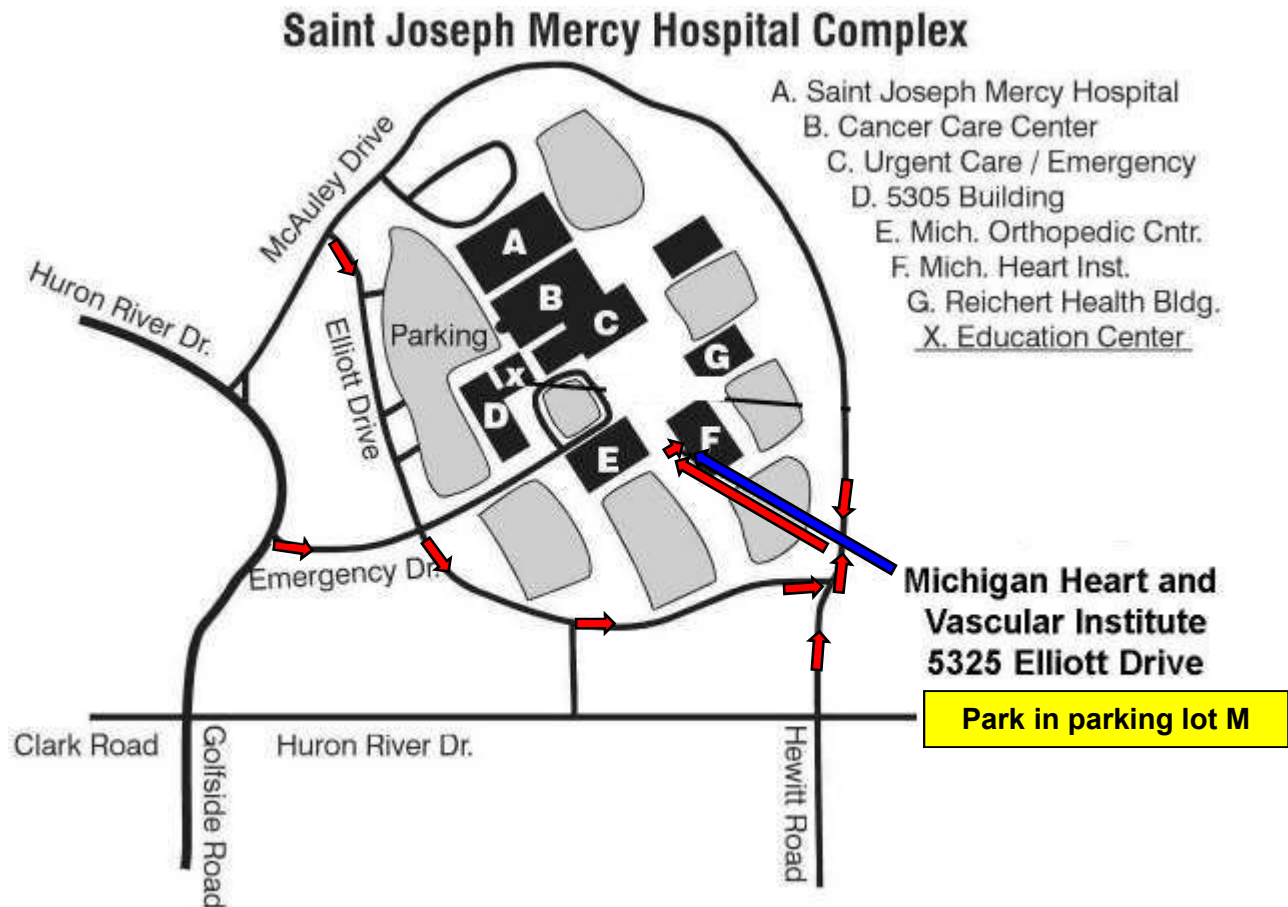

On April 10, 2018: the “Teens Using Drugs: What To Know and What To Do” Series will be relocated to the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, 5325 Elliott Drive. This is ONLY for April 10, 2018.

To find the Michigan Heart and Vascular Center building located at 5325 Elliott Drive: The hospital campus is circled by Elliott Drive (south and west side) and McCauley Drive (north and east side.) All streets leading to the hospital campus connect with either Elliott Drive or McCauley Drive. If you enter the campus on McCauley Drive, follow McCauley Drive to Elliott Drive. If you enter the campus on Elliott Drive: proceed towards the “specialty centers” area. The “specialty centers” area is about 0.3 miles south/east of the Emergency Drive and 0.1 miles west of McCauley Drive. Enter public parking area M. Park in lot M and enter the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, located on the east side of this parking area. We’ll have signs in the building directing you to the auditorium location.

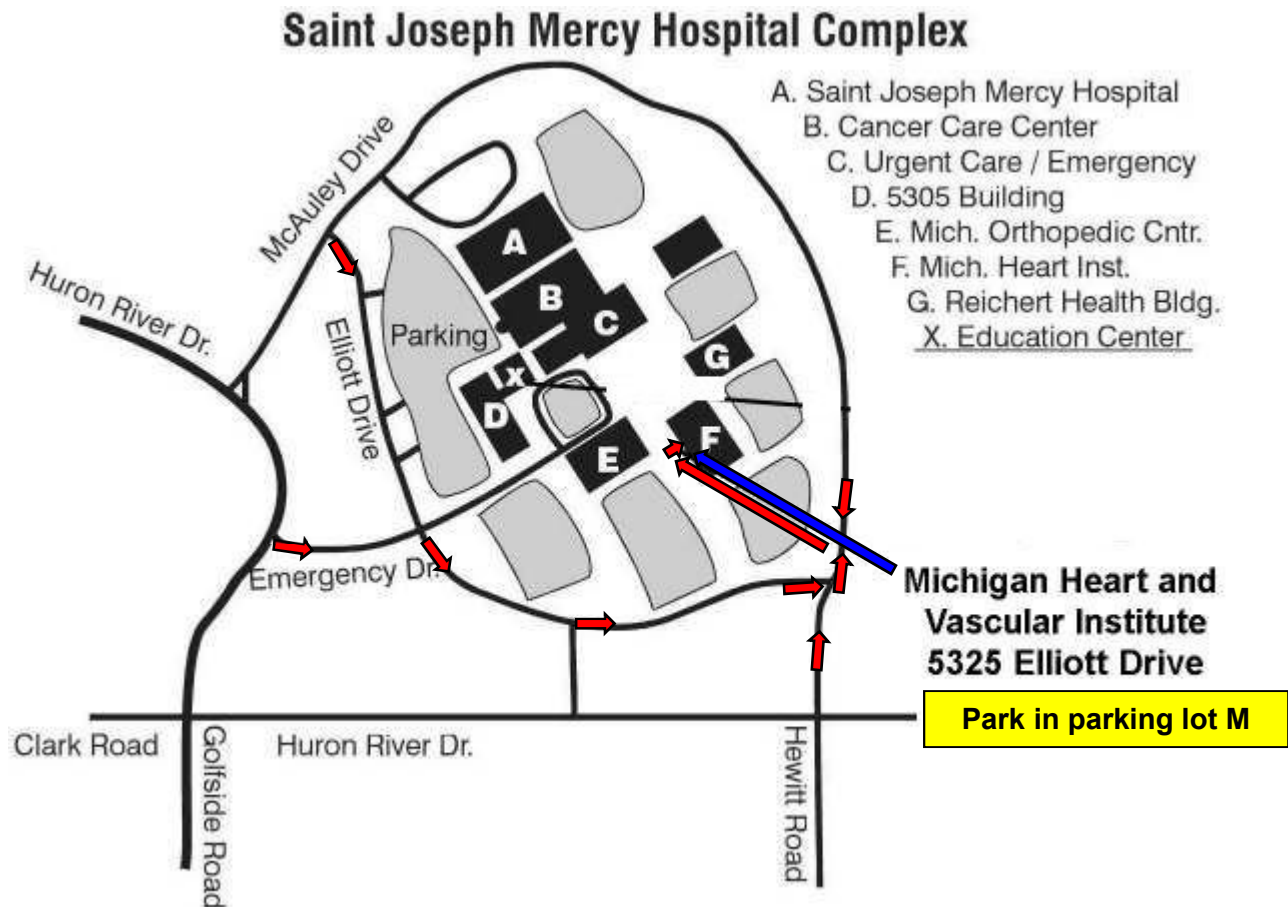

On April 10, 2018: the “Teens Using Drugs: What To Know and What To Do” Series will be relocated to the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, 5325 Elliott Drive. This is ONLY for April 10, 2018.

To find the Michigan Heart and Vascular Center building located at 5325 Elliott Drive: The hospital campus is circled by Elliott Drive (south and west side) and McCauley Drive (north and east side.) All streets leading to the hospital campus connect with either Elliott Drive or McCauley Drive. If you enter the campus on McCauley Drive, follow McCauley Drive to Elliott Drive. If you enter the campus on Elliott Drive: proceed towards the “specialty centers” area. The “specialty centers” area is about 0.3 miles south/east of the Emergency Drive and 0.1 miles west of McCauley Drive. Enter public parking area M. Park in lot M and enter the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, located on the east side of this parking area. We’ll have signs in the building directing you to the auditorium location.

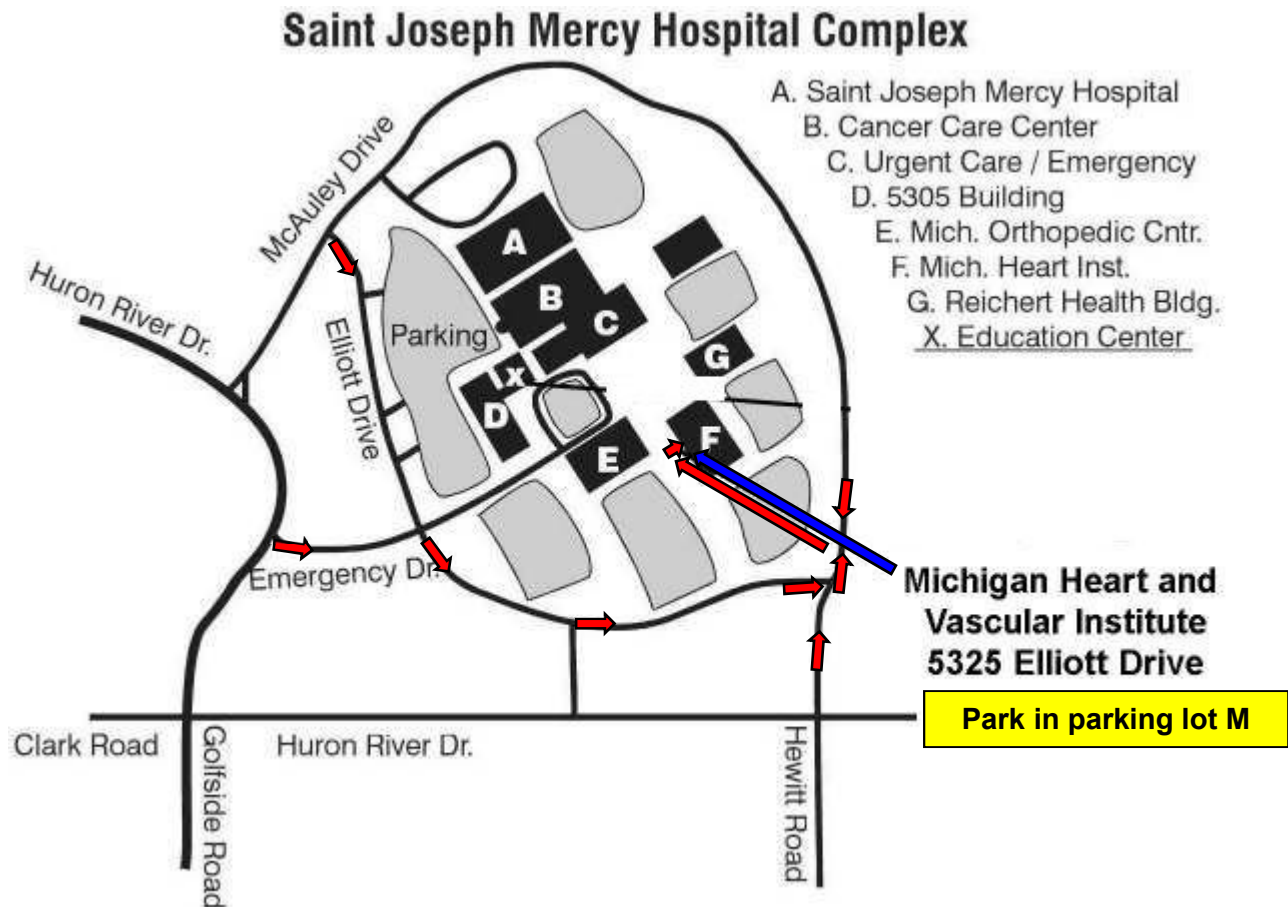

On April 10, 2018: the “Teens Using Drugs: What To Know and What To Do” Series will be relocated to the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, 5325 Elliott Drive. This is ONLY for April 10, 2018.

To find the Michigan Heart and Vascular Center building located at 5325 Elliott Drive: The hospital campus is circled by Elliott Drive (south and west side) and McCauley Drive (north and east side.) All streets leading to the hospital campus connect with either Elliott Drive or McCauley Drive. If you enter the campus on McCauley Drive, follow McCauley Drive to Elliott Drive. If you enter the campus on Elliott Drive: proceed towards the “specialty centers” area. The “specialty centers” area is about 0.3 miles south/east of the Emergency Drive and 0.1 miles west of McCauley Drive. Enter public parking area M. Park in lot M and enter the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, located on the east side of this parking area. We’ll have signs in the building directing you to the auditorium location.

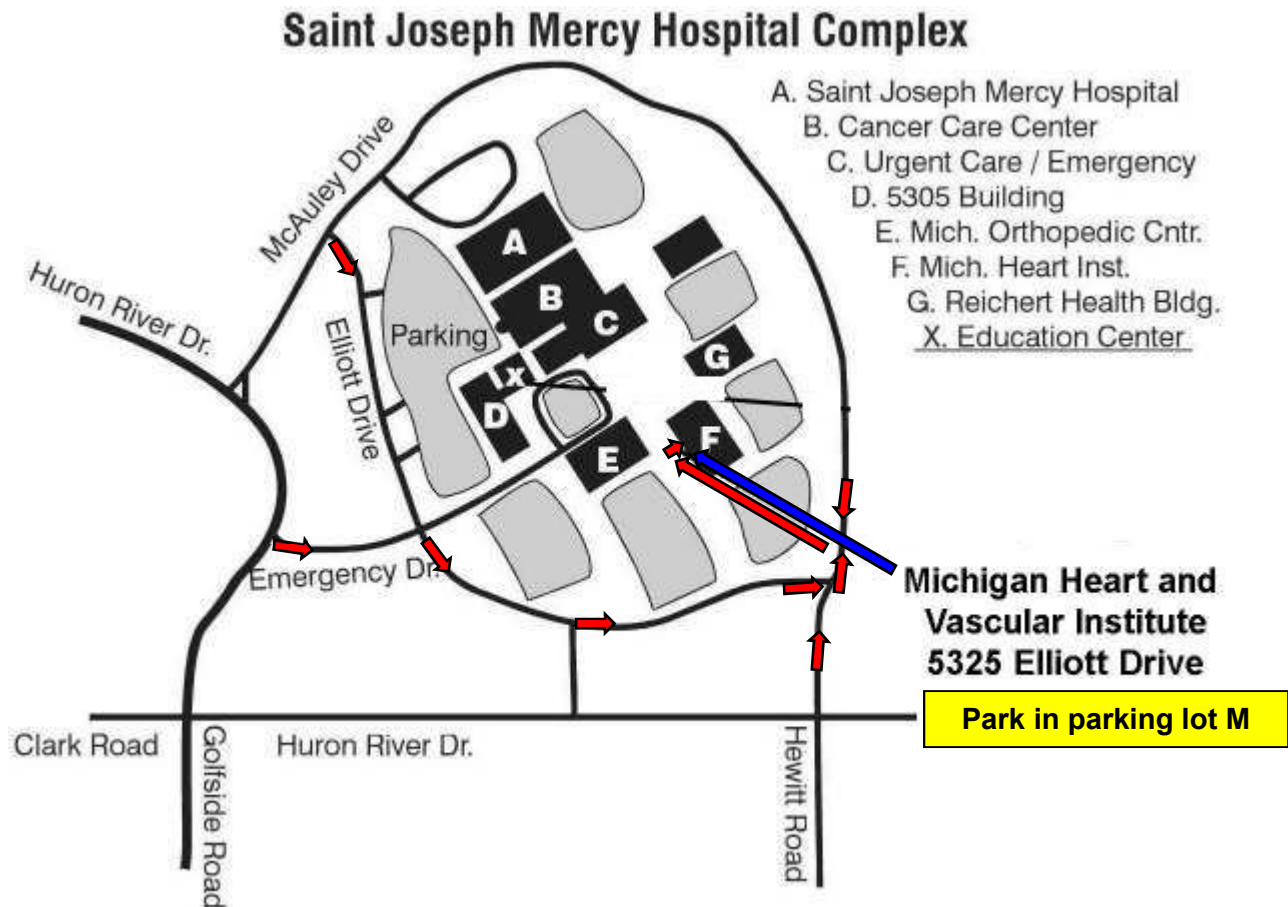

On April 10, 2018: the “Teens Using Drugs: What To Know and What To Do” Series will be relocated to the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, 5325 Elliott Drive. This is ONLY for April 10, 2018.

To find the Michigan Heart and Vascular Center building located at 5325 Elliott Drive: The hospital campus is circled by Elliott Drive (south and west side) and McCauley Drive (north and east side.) All streets leading to the hospital campus connect with either Elliott Drive or McCauley Drive. If you enter the campus on McCauley Drive, follow McCauley Drive to Elliott Drive. If you enter the campus on Elliott Drive: proceed towards the “specialty centers” area. The “specialty centers” area is about 0.3 miles south/east of the Emergency Drive and 0.1 miles west of McCauley Drive. Enter public parking area M. Park in lot M and enter the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, located on the east side of this parking area. We’ll have signs in the building directing you to the auditorium location.

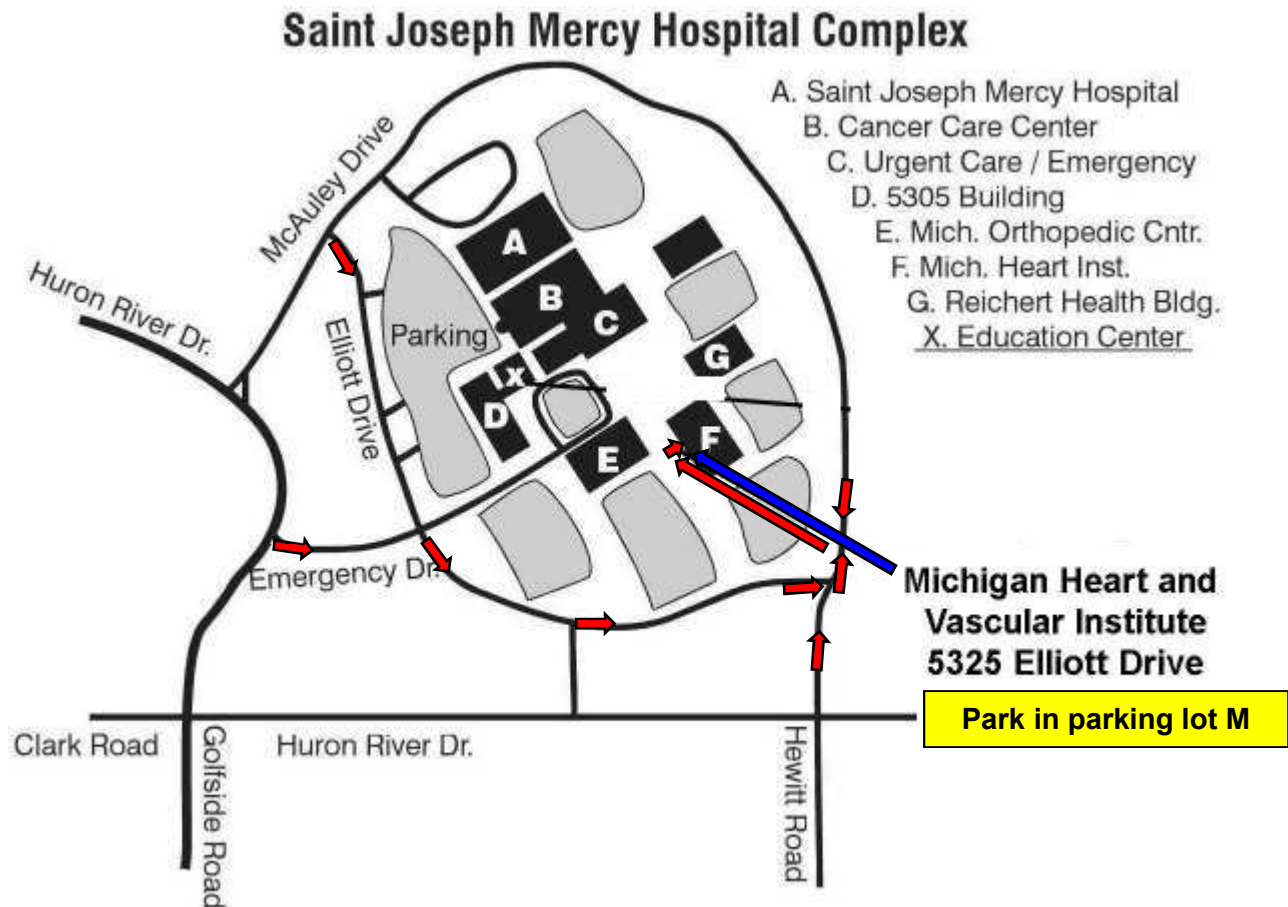

On April 10, 2018: the “Teens Using Drugs: What To Know and What To Do” Series will be relocated to the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, 5325 Elliott Drive. This is ONLY for April 10, 2018.

To find the Michigan Heart and Vascular Center building located at 5325 Elliott Drive: The hospital campus is circled by Elliott Drive (south and west side) and McCauley Drive (north and east side.) All streets leading to the hospital campus connect with either Elliott Drive or McCauley Drive. If you enter the campus on McCauley Drive, follow McCauley Drive to Elliott Drive. If you enter the campus on Elliott Drive: proceed towards the “specialty centers” area. The “specialty centers” area is about 0.3 miles south/east of the Emergency Drive and 0.1 miles west of McCauley Drive. Enter public parking area M. Park in lot M and enter the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, located on the east side of this parking area. We’ll have signs in the building directing you to the auditorium location.

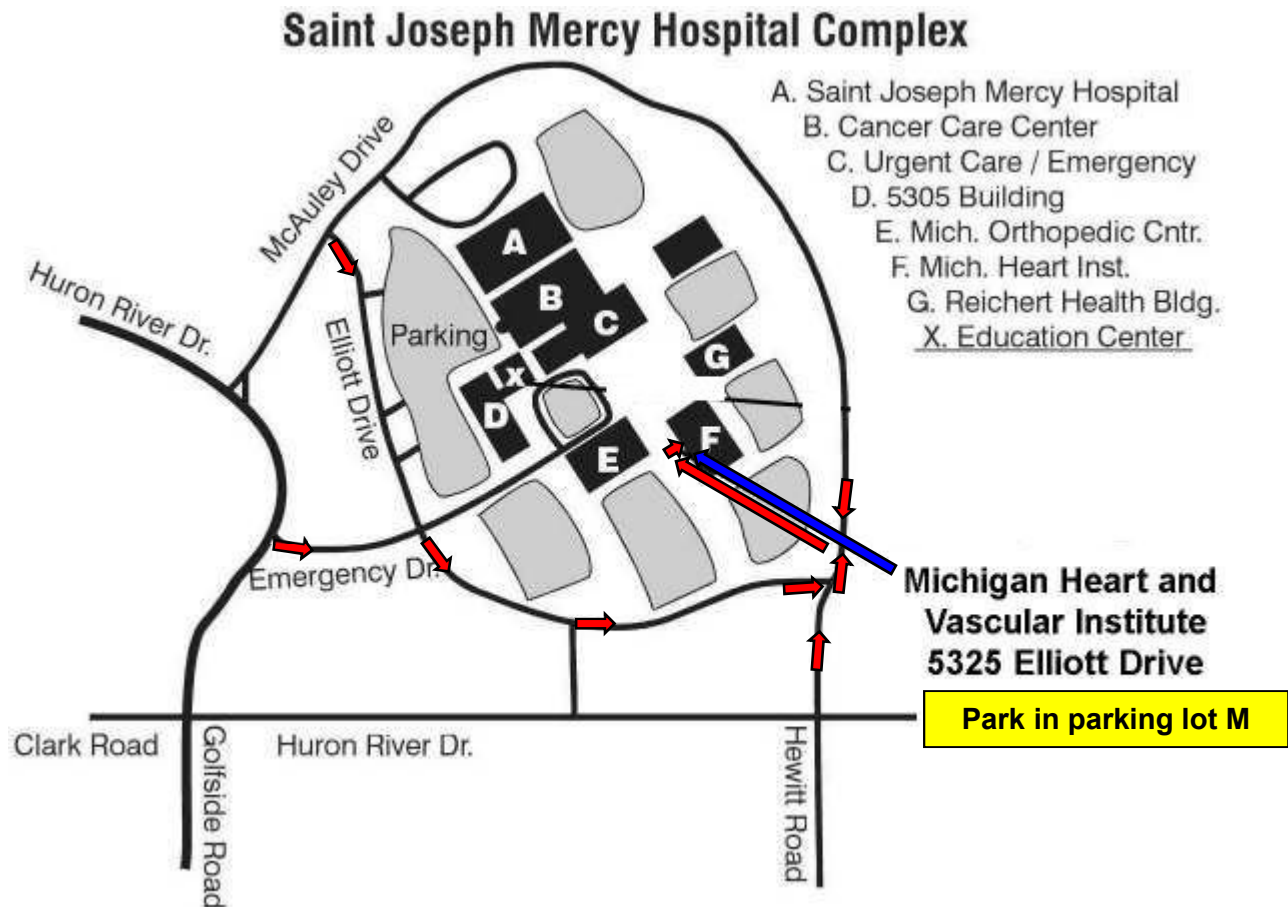

On April 10, 2018: the “Teens Using Drugs: What To Know and What To Do” Series will be relocated to the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, 5325 Elliott Drive. This is ONLY for April 10, 2018.

To find the Michigan Heart and Vascular Center building located at 5325 Elliott Drive: The hospital campus is circled by Elliott Drive (south and west side) and McCauley Drive (north and east side.) All streets leading to the hospital campus connect with either Elliott Drive or McCauley Drive. If you enter the campus on McCauley Drive, follow McCauley Drive to Elliott Drive. If you enter the campus on Elliott Drive: proceed towards the “specialty centers” area. The “specialty centers” area is about 0.3 miles south/east of the Emergency Drive and 0.1 miles west of McCauley Drive. Enter public parking area M. Park in lot M and enter the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, located on the east side of this parking area. We’ll have signs in the building directing you to the auditorium location.

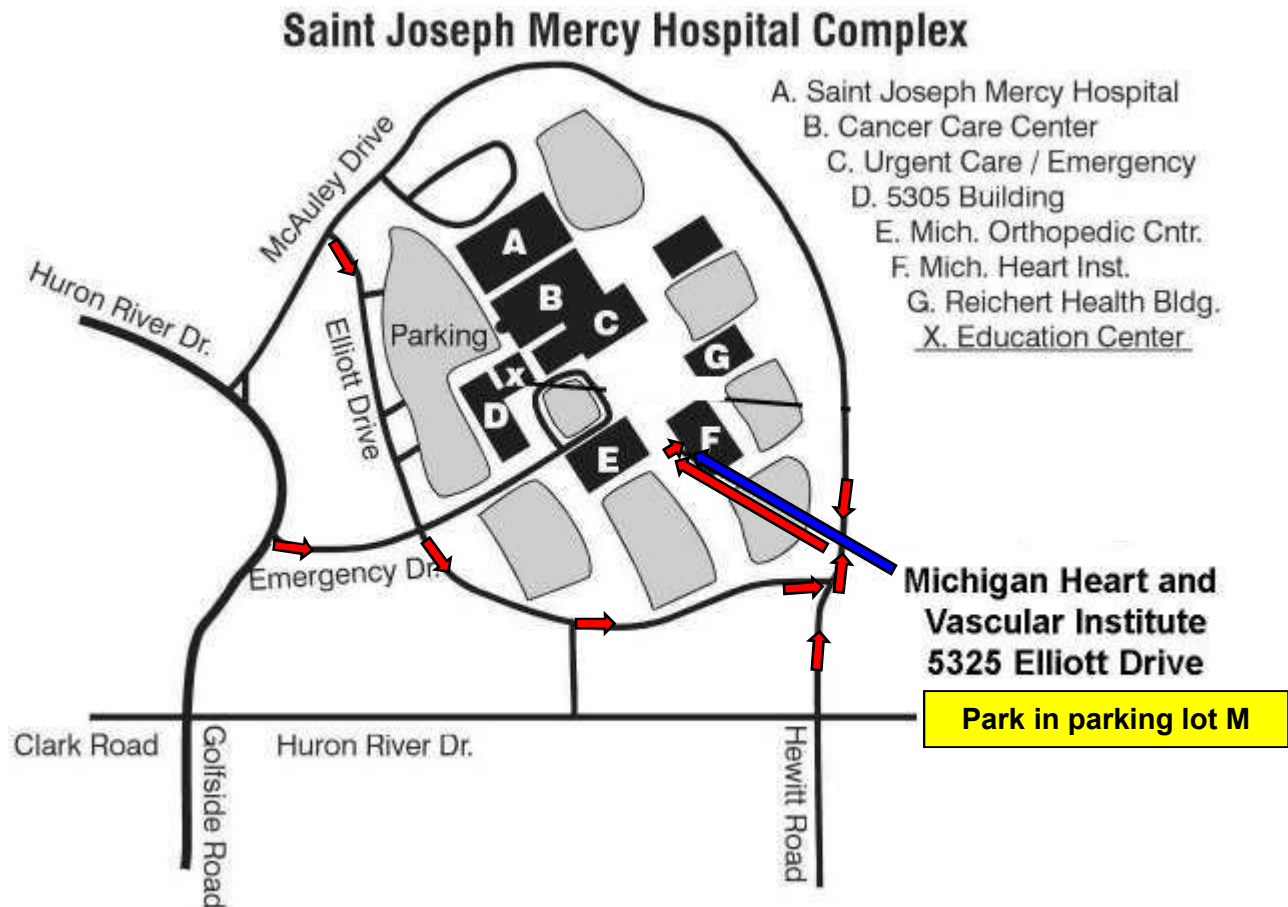

On April 10, 2018: the “Teens Using Drugs: What To Know and What To Do” Series will be relocated to the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, 5325 Elliott Drive. This is ONLY for April 10, 2018.

To find the Michigan Heart and Vascular Center building located at 5325 Elliott Drive: The hospital campus is circled by Elliott Drive (south and west side) and McCauley Drive (north and east side.) All streets leading to the hospital campus connect with either Elliott Drive or McCauley Drive. If you enter the campus on McCauley Drive, follow McCauley Drive to Elliott Drive. If you enter the campus on Elliott Drive: proceed towards the “specialty centers” area. The “specialty centers” area is about 0.3 miles south/east of the Emergency Drive and 0.1 miles west of McCauley Drive. Enter public parking area M. Park in lot M and enter the Michigan Heart and Vascular Institute, located on the east side of this parking area. We’ll have signs in the building directing you to the auditorium location.

