

DAWN FARM EDUCATION SERIES PRESENTS

NAVIGATING GRACE:

THE POWER OF CONNECTION AND TRANSFORMATION

Twelve Step recovery programs stress personal connection as a key ingredient in addiction recovery.

This presentation by best-selling author and clinician Jeff Jay is based on his book, Navigating Grace. It will describe the often-unlikely process of personal connection, and the concepts of service and altruism that lie at the heart of Twelve Step Programs.

The program will include inspiring personal remembrances of the people who changed Jeff's life forever.

A FREE PRESENTATION BY

JEFF JAY

DECEMBER 18, 2018

7:30PM - 9:00PM

Book sale/book signing opportunity immediately following the presentation

Jeff Jay is an acclaimed educator, author and clinician. Jeff heads a private practice that provides intervention, Structured Family Recovery™ and recovery mentoring and monitoring services internationally. Jeff co-authored the best-selling book "Love First: A Family's Guide to Intervention" (second edition, Hazelden, 2008) and other books. Jeff's newest book, "Navigating Grace, a Solo Voyage of Survival and Redemption, was released in 2015. Jeff is a dynamic, highly experienced speaker. His presentations are liberally interwoven with compassion, humor, personal stories and real-life descriptions.

St. Joseph Mercy Hospital Education Center
5305 Elliott Drive, Ypsilanti, Michigan, Parking Area P

Registration is not required. A certificate of attendance can be provided. FREE CEUs (1.5 hours) for addiction professionals (MCBAP Approved Education Provider). For other details, contact Dawn Farm at 734.485.8725, info@dawnfarm.org, or see the website at www.dawnfarm.org.